WEEKES WANTS TO KEEP COW

Appeals to Health Board to Allow For Pure Milk Supply.

Inspector Claims Citizen Had Animal With Two Goats in Cellar.

Alleging that "bad milk" purchased from his milk dealer, was the cause of his son's death, G. N. Weekes, has written to the London Board of Health asking permission to keep his own cow. His request was referred to Dr. C. S. Tamin, city dairy inspector, and Sanitary Inspector Richard Sanders, with power by the board in session Tuesday night.

Major Weekes' letter to the board follows: "Gentlemen.—Owing to bad milk bought from a milkman, my eldest boy acquired bovine tuberculosis with the result that when he contracted influenza he had no power of resistance and died.

"To do better for my remaining children I last fall bought a Jersey cow, which is now supplying my family with good healthy and wholesome milk. My attention has been called by your inspector to the city bylaw, which provides that permission of your body must be had to keep a cow.

"It appears to me likely that the bylaw is intended to protect purchasers of milk from ill-kept herds, but taken literally, may be extended to the cow kept for private milk supply only.

"Accordingly, I make application to you for permission to keep this cow at 251 Grosvenor street. I have built a suitable stable for her, with a cement floor, and will in all respects conform to the local bylaws and provisions of the public health act.

"I now ask that you will grant me this permission, and not send me back to the source of supply from which I have already suffered irreparable injury. Yours very truly, G. N. WEEKES.

Two Goats in Cellar.—Major Weekes has a cow and two goats in his cellar," explained Sanitary Inspector Sanders. "We told him he must comply with certain conditions. He told us the goats never bawled, and that it would disturb the neighbors."

"That cow has never had a tuberculin test, so he does not know if he is getting pure milk or not," commented Dr. C. S. Tamin, inspector of dairies. "He has taken it out of the cellar, but the stable is within 50 feet of the neighbor's door. We have had no complaints."

Ald. J. T. May appeared before the board and complained that refuse is being dumped at Horton and Thames streets, despite the board's order prohibiting such action.

"Saturday there was a load of junk from Hyman's dumped there," he declared. "One woman had to close her door for the smell of it, and when she complained to the driver he was quite nasty about it. Old mattresses and everything have been brought there and dumped. It is an eyesore. Put a fence across it. That will not cost much."

The board then recommended to No. 2 committee of the city council that a fence be built across the property, and instructed the sanitary inspector to take action to remove persons who do not dump refuse on this site.

A communication will be sent to the Grand Trunk Railway by the board pointing out the dirty condition of subways at Wortley road, Thames street, and Whitelock street, and urging that steps be taken to clean them up.

Adam Palmer appeared at the meeting and complained of insanitary conditions in connection with a Chinese laundry located at 430 Adelaide street. He reminded the board that the former tenants were ordered to vacate the premises by the sanitary inspector, and stated that the new Chinese tenants had moved in.

His chief complaint was the odor from a cess pit in the laundry yard. The case was referred to the sanitary inspector with power to act.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

So that a man shall say, verily there is a reward for the righteous; verily He is a God that judgeth in the earth.—Psalm 58:11.

JUSTICE and humanity have been fighting their way, like a thunderstorm, against the organized selfishness of human nature. God has given manhood but one clew to success—utter and exact justice.

TOMORROW'S DOINGS.

THURSDAY.—East Middlesex U. F. O. holds picnic at Springbank.

Housing commission meets at city hall, 8 o'clock.

Lions' Club banquets at Bungalow Inn, Springbank, 6:30 o'clock.

READING of communications and business of a routine nature only will claim the attention of the members of the Trades and Labor Council, in regular session Wednesday night.

WILLIAM IONS is acting plumbing inspector for the city during the absence of Plumbing Inspector J. C. Young, who is enjoying his annual vacation.

MEMBERS OF No. 1 branch of the Canadian Labor party will meet again in special session at the Labor Temple, Friday night to receive reports of committees and complete plans for further organization.

DELEGATES FROM the various carpenter unions throughout the province will gather in convention at the Labor Temple, June 29, June 30 and July 1. More than fifty are expected to be in attendance.

COMMENCING 10:30 A.M. THURSDAY, His Honor Judge Talbot Macbeth will preside at a special sitting of the Middlesex County court, when civil non-jury cases not disposed of at the regular session will be dealt with.

THOMAS WILLIS of London has entered action in the civil courts against the City of London, claiming $355.25, the cost, he alleges, of 900 pounds of butter, with interest thereon, sold the defendant.

NO ACTION will be taken by the city council on the petition that Grosvenor street be opened further east, owing to the fact that the cost of land for this improvement will exceed $5,000.

City Engineer H. A. Brazier has recommended that the petition be filed, owing to the cost of land, and the city council has followed his recommendation.

AS THE REAL WARM DAYS approach the distant rumble of the next civic election is discernible. "Tell them I'll be there," declared ex-Ald. William A. Wilson Wednesday, "as cannot anybody for the council in Ward 2 against anybody—against the world."

The doctored ex-councillor had just been informed of a rumor circulating bright and early in city hall circles, that School Trustee Edwin Smith would enter the council arena next December.

BUILDING INSPECTOR A. M. PIPER has issued 158 permits this month, the building involved totalling an estimated cost of $245,055. Latest permits issued at the city hall include:

Dr. S. J. T. Bean, two-story brick-veneer dwelling at 216 Wharfedale road, costing $7,500; Mrs. Stewart, road, costing $7,500; Mrs. Stewart, one-story brick, $3,000, and Miss Burton, for a 14-story brick-veneer dwelling at 754 King street, to cost $4,870.

BECAUSE THE PROPOSED name is too easily confused with Bedford street, the name Bedford, suggested for a thoroughfare running south from Victor street, has been ordered substituted by the town planning commission, acting on advice of City Engineer H. A. Brazier. Plans for a new subdivision, including the proposed Bedford street, have been held up by the commission until a suitable name has been chosen by the owner of the property to be sold.

BOAT TRAINS TO SARNIA BEGIN SUMMER SCHEDULE

Will Connect With Lake Steamers Beginning Saturday, June 24.

The boat trains running on the Grand Trunk Railway from Toronto to Sarnia by way of London, and making connections with the steamers of the Northern Navigation Company at Sarnia, will begin their summer schedule Saturday, June 24.

The specials will leave Toronto three times a week, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 10:02 a.m., and will arrive in the city at 1:40 p.m. The average train will consist of five coaches, a day coach, a dining car, and a parlor car.

The first steamer to make connections with the boat train is the Noronic, which docks at Point Edward Saturday morning.

Special trains will also be run from Point Edward to Toronto Monday, Wednesday and Friday, to carry the passengers from the steamers on the down-lake trips.

In former years, many large parties from Toronto and other cities have spent a week's vacation at the Great Lakes, and railway officials state that many have already booked their reservations and predict that this season will be a bumper one in lake passenger service.

FORMS NEW PARTNERSHIP

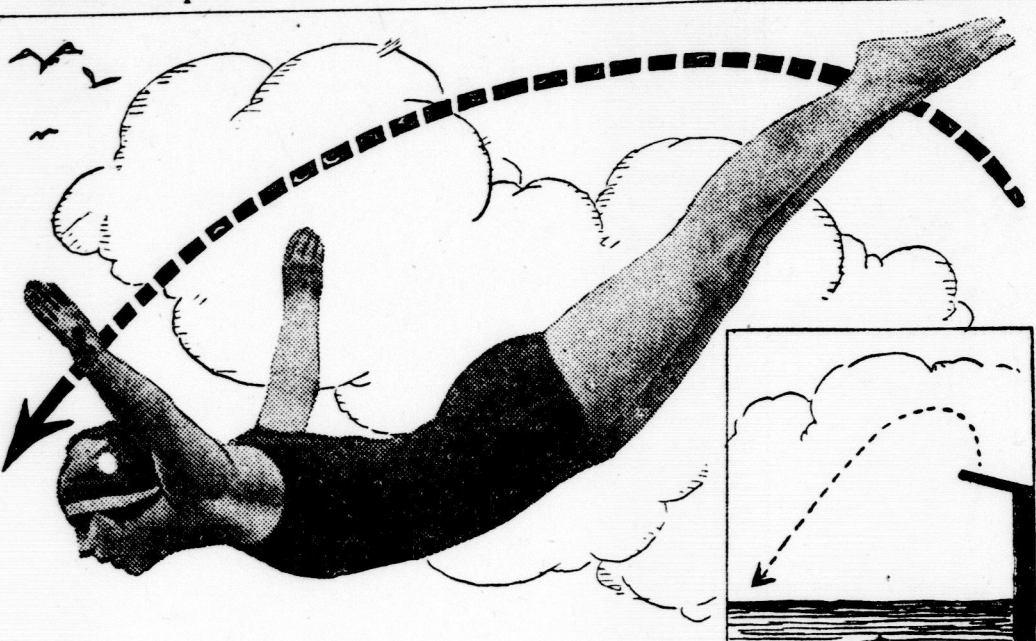

Mr. Thomas Coleridge, barrister, formerly of Cronyn, Betts & Coleridge, has severed his connection with that firm, and entered into partnership with T. G. Meredith, B.C.

FLOOD MAKES 10,000 HOMELESS.

Sofia, Bulgaria, June 21.—Ten thousand persons have been rendered homeless by devastating floods which inundated the suburban districts of Sofia, following torrential rains on Monday.

No loss of life has been reported. There was much damage to livestock.

Don't Splash Or You'll Mar Beauty Of Swan Dive

AILEEN RIGGIN IN A SWAN DIVE. THE LARGE DOTTED LINE SHOWS THE GENERAL DIRECTION OF THE DIVE, WHILE THE SMALL DIAGRAM INDICATES THE COMPLETE COURSE OF THE DIVE, AND THE PROPER ANGLE OF ENTERING THE WATER.

BY AILEEN RIGGIN.

Special to London Advertiser.

THE swan dive, when properly done, is the prettiest of all dives.

Stand at attention at the low end of the spring, and as high as of possible. Extend the arms at right angles to the body, and arch the back so that the toes, pointed straight out, come over the head.

Just before entering the water, which should be done at an angle of about 60 degrees, bring the arms into position over the head, arms straight, fingers straight and the forefingers touching.

Be careful not to splash the water unnecessarily when entering it, as this destroys the beauty of the dive.

Tomorrow—The front jackknife.

MEET SUCCESS ON CHURCH CANVASS

Members of Askin Street Methodist Obtain Half of Objective.

More than half of their objective was raised by the people of Askin Street Methodist Church on the first night of the canvass for the proposed extension to their Sunday school building. The very large number of members of the church to be called upon made it impossible to complete the work in one evening, and those who were not waited upon Tuesday night will be seen during the remaining days of the week. The trustee board of the church has proposed that if subscriptions of $10,000 are received, which will cover all the debt remaining upon the church and Sunday school, that they will at once proceed with the extension, which is to include a junior Sunday school and a gymnasium for the use of both the boys and the girls.

The Ladies' Aid Society has tendered generous assistance towards the raising of the required amount, and the Epworth League and the organized classes have also undertaken to raise substantial amounts, parts of which are already on hand in their treasuries. It is, therefore, confidently expected that the sum aimed at will be fully in sight within a week.

Before starting out on their canvass Tuesday night the representatives of the various organizations interested who had been appointed to wait upon the church members, had supper together in the church dining-room, between forty and fifty being present. The supper itself was provided by two or three of the younger men of the church. A very happy feature of the whole movement is the way in which the younger people have done their utmost, and are nearly all canvassers, and themselves giving most generously to the undertaking.

REMAINS LA FORTUNE FOR AUTO SMASH ON HIGHWAY

Squire Chittick Lays Charge of "Causing Bodily Harm" Over Until June 23.

Apprehended on the London highway between this city and St. Thomas, following his collision Wednesday night with another machine, Leo LaFortune, 679 Dundas street, has been remanded by Squire W. H. Chittick, presiding at the Middlesex County police court, until June 23 for trial upon the case that "by wilful neglect while in charge of an automobile he caused bodily harm to the person of Mrs. Finch."

The county authorities state that LaFortune was operating his car at a reckless rate of speed, and was entirely to blame for the accident, whereby both machines were badly smashed.

While still in custody Wednesday afternoon the defendant is endeavoring to arrange for the necessary bail through his solicitors, Messrs. Henderson & Judd.

CHAIRMAN EDWIN SMITH DENIES MAKING STATEMENT

Cannot Recollect Saying Three Non-Active Members Sit on Board of Education.

Did School Trustee Edwin Smith, chairman of the board of education, actually state the benefit of all who may have been within easy reach of his voice, that there "were three non-active members sitting on that body?"

It would appear that there has been a certain misunderstanding on this point. While a report was current to that effect, Smith declared quite positively Wednesday, that he failed to recollect ever making a statement of that nature.

He pointed out that, of course, as the usual separate school representation of two members was lacking this year, they could quite easily be termed as non-active.

London Does Not Exempt Victory Bonds From Income Tax

DESPITE the fact that victory bonds are not exempt from income taxation by the city, members of the city assessment staff declare that citizens persist in including these assets in their lists of exempted holdings.

It is pointed out that when federal income tax is levied upon assessment, and this fact leads citizens to believe that they are also exempt on municipal income taxation.

Scores of returns on income at the city hall have victory bonds listed with exempted holdings, and the clerks are kept busy running their blue pencil through these lists.

ETIMAR CLUB TO SUMMER AT PORT

The Etimar Club has established its headquarters for the summer at Port Stanley, and members of the club will spend their holidays this season under canvas on Orchard Beach. Already several of the young men have gone to the lakeside for the week-end, and before long a summer camp will be drawn up.

Among those who will spend a part of the summer at Port are: Fred Beatty, Dave Finlayson, Bruce Nino, Lindsay Scott, Brewer Hunt, Thomas Fitzgerald, Charlie Colbert, Charles Sears, George Gillespie, Art Jackson, Ron Hart, Mill Clinger, Ted Wainwright and Walter Holt.

DEPLORES CHANGE IN TIME OF TRUSTEES' MEETINGS

Thomas Rowe Believes Confusion and Misunderstanding Have Arisen From Plan.

School Trustee Thomas Rowe, dean of the school board, is quite frank in his opinion that to all intents and purposes but little of real value has been accomplished by that body this year.

While deploring the fact that considerable opposition has emanated from the city council, particularly in reference to the issuance of debentures for school construction, Trustee Rowe is of opinion that it is to be noted by the change in the day of the regular board meetings.

He explains that while he did not oppose a move when first advocated by Trustee Edwin Smith, chairman of the board, he feels that not a little confusion and misunderstanding has been created with the result, he points out, that one day last week three meetings, two of them committee meetings, were scheduled for the same afternoon, and it was impossible to transact business at any of them, as the trustees failed to show up in sufficient numbers.

REV. R. STEWART MADE MODERATOR

London Presbytery Elects Officers at Port Stanley Outing.

Rev. Robert Stewart was elected moderator of the London Presbytery during its combined business and outing session, held at Port Stanley, Tuesday morning and afternoon. Mr. Stewart, who is at present in charge of the church at Dutton, has been prominently identified with the work of the presbytery and has been active on a great many committees. He succeeds Rev. D. C. McGregor.

At the business session, held in St. John's Church, Rev. Dr. McCrae was asked to occupy the chair in the absence of the moderator, Rev. D. C. McGregor.

Accept Resignation.

The resignation of Rev. J. P. Falconer of Rensselaer and New Glasgow, was accepted by the presbytery. A delegation, consisting of James McLean, John McLean, Archibald McColl and J. McPherson, waited upon the presbytery to testify to the esteem in which Mr. Falconer was held by the congregation to whom he had ministered for the past fourteen years. In spite of the plea, however, that he should remain with them, Mr. Falconer's resignation goes into effect the last day of June.

Dr. McCrae read a communication from Rev. Martin, who until a short time ago was clerk of the presbytery, thanking the presbytery for its kindness during his incumbency and for their last gift of remembrance to him.

A communication was also read from the examining board of Manitoba College, giving details of a high standing obtained by Rev. I. H. McDonald of Kintore, in his post-graduate work for the degree of B.D., stating that the three theses submitted by him were of an exceptionally high order. At special convocation services during the general assembly in Winnipeg, the degree of B.D. was conferred upon Mr. McDonald. A resolution of congratulation was passed by the presbytery.

Reduce Grants.

Rev. J. M. Crawford of Wilton Grove, presented the report of the home mission committee, and a resolution was passed providing for all receiving congregations to be visited and for grants from this fund to be reduced to the lowest possible figure.

According to Mr. Crawford's report the following grants have been asked for: Burn's Church, Delaware, $50; Port Stanley, $50; St. George's Church, London Junction, $50; Knollwood Park, $182.

The business session closed at one o'clock and members adjourned to the Inverness Heights where they were joined by their wives and families, the afternoon being spent in happy picnic fashion with the usual games and races.

INSPECTOR URGES PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AT STATION

Complains of Condition at London and Port Stanley Railway Depot.

Sanitary Inspector Richard Sanders of the board of health, has complained to the London Railway Commission and to the city council that there is no lavatory accommodation for London and Port Stanley Railway patrons at the downtown station. The city council has referred the complaint to No. 2 committee.

"There is no toilet accommodation at the London and Port Stanley Railway downtown depot," he stated in regard to this complaint. "This accommodation should be there, particularly in view of the fact that many patrons wait several minutes at the station for trains, and they quite often have children with them."

"I brought this matter to the attention of No. 2 committee last year but no action was taken. According to the public health act the railway has no right to have an office at the depot without lavatory accommodation for the staff."

"Everything else, on the London end of the city-owned railway is all right from a sanitary standpoint. This was revealed by my inspection this year."

CRONYN MEMORIAL CHOIR PICNICS AT SPRINGBANK

Enjoyable Program of Sports Is Brought to Conclusion by Illuminated Grand March.

A picnic held at Springbank by the choir members and their friends of Cronyn Memorial Church, was largely attended, and judged the most delightful and successful picnic yet held by this organization.

A delicious supper prepared by the ladies, following the supper sports held were keenly contested by all, prizes being given to the respective winners.

The evening of events came to a pleasant close by a grand march, each member carrying sparklers and balloons.

The races resulted as follows: Boys' race—Randolph Boyce, Geo. Biddell, Billy pig race—Steve Warner and Miss Kathleen Gibson. Doughtnut race—Miss Carrie Pritchett.
