Stefansson Believes Crawford Party Somewhere in Siberia.

NATIVES GENEROUS

Castel, Stefansson said, is perhaps even better qualified than Noice to advise. Both were colleagues of Lorne Knight and Fred Maurer on Stefansson's former expedition. Ste-Castel spent last winter in the mouth of the river Kolyma, and in the spring he traveled by sled to East Cape thus covering the entire coastline along which Crawford's party may possibly have landed. This coast is dotted with native houses and many of the natives are very wealthy as well as being hospitable. The explorer is positive that any Stefansson has just received private messages from Noice stating game conditions on Wrangel Island were apparently excellent. This bears out the contention of Stefansson, Dr. Simpson and other authorities that starvation could not have been the direct cause of the tragedy. Diaries Will Tell Story.

Stefansson believes the pub of their diaries will throw light on the misfortunes which reduced the party. The first factor was the incredible oversight of not taking a skin boat; the second was the failure to haul walrus meat to camp after it had been killed, leaving it to be devoured by bears and foxes.

He explained that crossing to the mainland over ice is not exceedingly dangerous when conditions are favorable and caution is observed, out it is a hazardous undertaking in January, when daylight is scarce and snow may disguise treacherous ice, and when there is a temptation on account of shortness of daylight to sacrifice carefulness to haste.

TODAY'S OPENING PRICES.
Chicago, Sept. 6.—With spring wheat beginning to move in volume from farms the wheat market showed something of a downward tendency in price today during the early dealings. A decline in Liverpool quotations counted as an additional bearish influence, and so too did predictions of increased hedging here against Canadian grain. In the absence of any aggressive selling, however, declines failed to go very far. The opening, which ranged from ½c off to ½c up, was followed by a moderate setback all round and then a little rally. Despite unfavorable weather, corn and oats were easy in sympathy with wheat. After opening unchanged to ½c lower, the corn market held near to the initial range.
Oats started unchanged to ½c up, but later showed slight losses.

Government Files Claim For Cost of Occupation of Corfu.

ARREST JOURNALIST

Special Cable to The Advertiser.
London, Sept. 6.—While the League of Nations council at Geneva considered intervention in the Greco-Italian dispute, new antagonistic moves or the part of Italy heightened pessimism here.

Italian marines occupied three more islands in the vicinity of Corfu.

Italy-filed with Greece a claim for from 15,000,000 lire to 20,000,000 lire as the first costs of the occupation of Greek territory as a punitive measure for the slaying of Italian commissioners at Janina. A regiment of infantry, the Fortieth Italian, was garrisoned at the islands of Paxos and Antinaxos.

A Greek journalist named Iramene was arrested by Italians while in a sailing vessel on the high seas. Italian men-of-war swarm about the little group of islands which Italy has seized, torpedoboats hovring about watching all Greek ves els that arrive or leave. A meeting of volunteer Garibal-dians, who fought for Greece against Turkey in 1897, adopted a resolution lenouncing the massacre and decided return their Greek war decora Premier Mussolini has made speech at Rome declaring that Great Britain and other countries sympathetic towards Greece need a demon tration of Italy's ca'm and righteousness. These developments caused no little apprehension in this country, where it is felt an outbreak of war between Greece and Italy must inevitably be followed by all the Balcans being drawn in.

At Plymouth today, a trades union congress, representing over 4,000,000 congress, representing ever 4,000,000 British workers, passed a resolution to the effect that it viewed with deep concern the immediate danger of a tragic development in the Italo-Greek dispute, and urging both nations to abstain from hostilities and arbitrate through the League of Nations.

FEAR FOUL PLAY.

Windsor, Sept. 5. — Bhaobhilla Maroun, 35 years old, who has been missing from his home, 61 East Sandwich street, since Monday, is being sought by police here and in Detroit. Maroun left home, his relatives told the police, for a drive in his auto. He was minus his hat and coat. Foul play is feared.

ACCIDENT VICTIM REGOVERS. Chatham, Sept. 5.—Mrs. Frank Smith, who was very severely injured in a motor accident in July, was able to return home yesterday from St. Joseph's Hospital. Mrs. Smith's condition was so critical that recovery was hardly expected, but rapid improvement was made during the last week or so. Mrs. Smith's daughter, Mizpah, who was a patient in the play is feared.
