

International Support Now Seen For New German Loan

GERMAN LOAN SAFE, IS CLAIM

Paul M. Warburg, New York Banker, Gives Opinion on Return Home.

HINGES ON FRENCH

Canadian Press Despatch. New York, Sept. 18.—International bankers will support the proposed loan to Germany because it is safe, in the opinion of Paul M. Warburg, chairman of the board of the International Acceptance Bank Inc. He returned on the Homeric today after a three months study of Europe's financial situation.

Much of the loan's success depends upon the French attitude toward the Ruhr. Mr. Warburg said Europe, he believed, has faith in Premier Herriot, but the manner in which the evacuation is completed and the binding France assurances are in this regard, the better for the prospects of the loan and the progress of the entire world.

"It is difficult to conceive of any better security than the German people—provided they are certain to be left undisturbed in their work," the banker said. "As to that, the arbitration provisions of the Dawes report offer adequate guarantees when once the Ruhr districts have been evacuated."

The campaign against the loan carried on by certain English papers is most unfortunate. I saw most of the leading bankers in London, and they were quite clear in their views, while, temporarily, certain British industries might be adversely affected by a revival of German industry, such as might follow from the successful launching of the German loan, the ultimate consequence to be expected from Germany's economic and financial reconstitution, namely, the rehabilitation and stabilization of the currency would benefit all nations."

ACCORD WILL CONTINUE. Geneva, Sept. 18.—The regional accord between states will continue to form one of the essential features of the draft proposals written by Dr. Delandier, if the action taken today by the sub-committee on disarmament is approved by the full commission and the assembly.

Some of the keenest intellects in the world battled all day with this question of supplementary alliances with which the British and others have always moved carefully, on the ground that they would only engender counter alliances and tend to destroy that which the League of Nations is trying to maintain.

New Agreement. The agreement reached today authorized the separate accord that makes it possible for an aggressor state to decline to accept an arbitrator's sentence, and the other states are the signatories of the new agreement, which is a purely domestic or international in character. The French thesis is that when the conference is unanimous in declaring a question internal in nature the members of the league just accept this declaration and no nation will have the right to go to war because of any conflict based on it.

Signor Fernandez of Brazil and Louis Loucheur of France and M. Collet of Greece will prepare a definition on this question.

CHRIST CHURCH TO HOLD SUPPER FRIDAY NIGHT

At a meeting of Christ Church, Port Stanley, Sunday school officers, it was decided to hold a supper in the parish rooms one week from Friday, in place of the previously arranged picnic at Willow Beach, which was postponed.

A large variety of sports have been arranged for, followed by a bountiful repast furnished by the women's guild of Christ Church. Rev. J. R. Bythell said that he hoped the supper would be well attended and that the children would be satisfied because of the unavoidable postponement of the picnic.

At least 150 are expected to be present and valuable prizes are to be awarded in the numerous contests. Last year the picnic was held on Invererie Heights, Port Stanley, and was very successful, nearly 200 being present.

HON. F. A. ANGLIN IS NAMED CHIEF JUSTICE FOR CANADA; McKEOWN HEADS RAIL BOARD

Federal Government Announces Appointments To Two Important Posts.

APPOINT JUDGES

Deputy Minister of Justice and J. Rinfret Are Honored.

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Sept. 17.—The appointment of the Hon. Francis Alexander Anglin of Pains, judge of the supreme court of Canada, to the position of the chief justice of Canada was announced tonight.

Chief Justice Anglin succeeds the Right Hon. Sir Louis Davies in this position.

Simultaneously with the announcement of the appointment of Chief Justice Anglin it was announced that Edwin L. Newcombe, deputy minister of justice, and Thibault Rinfret of the superior court of Quebec have been appointed judges of the supreme court of Canada, and that His Honor Judge Malouin has retired. The latter was appointed about a year ago.

Chief Justice Anglin was born in St. John, New Brunswick, in April, 1865, a son of the Hon. T. W. Anglin, a former Speaker of the House of Commons.

Justice Newcombe has occupied the position of deputy minister of justice since 1893. He was born in Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, on February 18, 1859.

APPOINT CHAIRMAN.

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Chief Justice H. A. McKeown of king's bench division, supreme court of New Brunswick, has been appointed chairman of the board of railway commissioners for Canada.

His appointment was made to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. F. D. Carvel.

The royal commission appointed by the government to investigate claims for identity made by depositors of the Home Bank. He conducted hearings at Ottawa and Toronto covering a period of some weeks, and eventually brought in a report in which he found that presentation was made to the department of finance, 1916 and 1918, which would have justified an investigation by the ministers of finance under the bank act.

The new chief commissioner has been chief justice of New Brunswick since 1916. He was born in St. John, New Brunswick, on November 23, 1863. He was admitted to the bar of New Brunswick in 1884, and became judge at the supreme court of his province in 1909. He was elected to the Legislature of New Brunswick in 1910, representing St. John City and County, and he became a member of the government in 1919. From 1903 to 1907 he was solicitor-general, and from 1907 to 1909 attorney-general of New Brunswick. In politics he is a Liberal.

ILLNESS KEPT PREMIER FROM BECK MEMORIAL

Hon. H. G. Ferguson Writes Letter of Regret to the G.W.V.A. Secretary.

The following letter from the premier of Ontario, in which he regretted that he was unable to attend the G. W. V. A. memorial service to the late Lady Beck held recently at Byron Sanatorium, was received at the annual G. W. V. A. meeting last night:

"Dear Mr. Wray: I have been absent from the office for about six weeks. The other day while I was laid up at home I received a very urgent invitation to attend the memorial service at Byron for the late Lady Beck, which would have gladly accepted if I had been able to attend. I was forced, however, through illness to advise you that I would be unable to be there."

"I trust your function was a great success. I know something of the wonderful devotion of the late Lady Beck in connection with the Byron institute. I would like to associate myself with all those who are paying respect to her memory. Sincerely, 'H. G. FERGUSON'."

The letter was received on Tuesday, and President Wray answered with an invitation for the premier to attend another function which is being planned for Armistice Day.

VETERANS ARE PLANNING ARMISTICE CELEBRATION

Owing to the splendid success of the G. W. V. A. memorial concert in honor of the late Lady Beck, which was held at Byron Sanatorium on Friday, another function to be held on Armistice Day is being planned by the local veterans' command.

In an effort to observe Armistice Day, November 11, in a more fitting manner than in past years, the executive committee of the G. W. V. A. is now planning extensive arrangements for the forthcoming function.

President Wray stated today that no definite announcement as to the proposed Armistice Day service could be given at present, but that it would be one of the largest functions ever put on by the London command.

VISCOUNT ISHI

of Japan, who is understood to be behind the demand that the League of Nations, rather than the United States, convene the forthcoming disarmament conference.

Children's Aid Society Board Holds First Meeting of Fall Season.
