The surroundings of the sunburners, which involve the extent to which Durrant would have been over-come by gas had he had the experience he alleged, will also have to be considered. This technical evidence is second in importance to the evidence as to Durrant's being in Blanche Lamont's company on the afternoon Blanche Lament's company en the afternoon of the murder. In connection with the col-lege lectures it is understood District Attor-ney Barnes will parallel the two sets of notes and argue that Durrant's could not be more like Glaser's without having been copied verbatim, and that they are such as mould be modered by one making means would be produced by one making notes from another's reading and discussion. The District Attorney will also attack the roll call, and will again call attention to the error that occurred in marking Student Garvin absent when he was present. The position of the jury as to the roll call will influence the verdict.

As to the handwriting of the address on the A. package in which the dead girl's rings were returned to Mrs. Noble, the jury will be asked to judge this for itself and to consider System. the further similarity between the writing on the package sent to Dickinson with a strap on which Blanche Lamont's name was ministry, was, it is said, about to resign on the day that Antananarivo was taken, and the victory gave M. Rihot and his colleagues a short lease of official life. The conquest of the Island cost an enormous sum of money, and Madagascar will probably not pay ar-penses. The French possessions in Asia do not. The French masses are less clamorous for glory than at any time in the last cen-tury.

however, was within their reach. They used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder and found, as everyone else finds, that relief was speedy and effective, and desiring to benefit others they trankly make this statement to the world over their own signatures. One short puff of the breath through the blower, supplied with each bottle of Mr. Ag-new's Catarrhal Powder, diffuses this powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Pain-less and delightful to use, it relieves in ben minutes and permanently curse Catarrh. Hay
