Rainer, with his son, will continue to manufacture the original cross-scale Planos, of which the said Joseph F. Rainer is the sole inventor. Since the above dissolution, Mr. Rainer, sr., has greatly improved the small Cross-scale Planoby adding one string more to each note throughout the middle, making three strings to each note instead of two, thus giving the Plano by adding one string three throughout the middle. There will be fifty-three notes from the troble down that will have three strings instead of twenty-four notes from the treble down as formerly. The undersigned will give to wholesale and retail customers the benefit of this improvement by letting them have these Planos for the same price as the ones formerly mäke with two strings. These Planos have now been before the pub-lio for 23 years, and have alwaysranked among the ways that we are welf the same price as

Mr. Boswell says: "If amateurs are to be confined entirely to university men, bank men, professional men, such as lawyers, students, etc., in your part of the world, I can assure you that is not my view. I cannot see why an honest mechanic cannot be as good an amateur carsman in every respect of the word as a collegian. word as a collegian. Your committee has struck a blew at rewing which I think will be hurtful, and I confess to a feeling of great disappointment. Three has been a want of courtesy on the part of your committee that to me is surprising. • • Without a word of notice, we hear that your committee had questioned the standing of some of our men, and had it not been for you, the president of the N.A.A.O., we nevershould have heard one word of any complaint of our men. Last year net a word was breathed into my ear of any question of atter having heard from you of what had taken place, made a thorough investigataken place, made a thorough investiga-tion of the conduct of these men, here to-day, without a single reason having been vouchsafed to us-three Canadian carsmen vouchsafed to us—three Canadian oarsmen —all of whom had been victors in your country—are disqualified by your com-mittee. I consider, Mr. President, that our Canadian oarsmen have been done a great injustice, and I now ask you, on behalf of the C. 'A. A. O., to be good enough to let me have the reasons for the disqualification of our men. * * I seems to me that your idea as to betting is that a man in a university orew might be allowed to make university crew might be allowed to make a wager and still remain an amateur, but Gleneig-the Nun, with Hayden & Co.'s a wager and still remain an amatieur, but not so a man who occupies a portion in a lower class of life, but who loves the pastime university man. My own opielon is, that not one of the three men now disqualified laved rowing less than your most enthusi-atic college man. Not one of them has been guilty of any improper conduct at any regatia, but because he has a little more muscle he is to be excluded."
