WALL-STREET GOSSIF. Robert Cochran received this despatch from his New York ageins to day: New York, April 27.—Quite a number of broken sold their stocks yesterday, expecting there would be a reaction of at least 1 or 2 per cent., But they Tound their offerings were secret of the fact that he looks for much higher prices of all stocks. He considers W.U. the changest, and around 105 Broadway It is said that if the earnings for May and June hold out as well as they ire now doing, the dividend will undoubtedly be increased to 6 per cent. Mr. Sarge believes that this will surely be done this year. He says "pressure of business from political sources which we shall have this summer will be equal to something like 1 per cent. or more for our stockholders." AIKENHEAD & OROMBIE WALL-STREET GOSSIP.
