ship of this parish, without expressing our real regret that your state of health is such as to compel you to give up a trust, which you have so faithfully discharged for the space of thirty years.

Many who sat under your teaching, when your voice, health and strength were more adequate to that important duty, and who heard the Gospel of Christ preached with much earnestness and pathos, have not been spared to unite with us at this time, in expressions of gratitude for the benefits derived, through the blessing of God on your instructions and admonitions.

The intimate connexion which subsists between a clergyman and his parishioners, affords many opportunities of experiencing his kindness, sympathy and consolation, under the most trying circumstances of sickness, affliction and bereavement; for all such instances of the Christian pastor's solicitude, which we, for so long a period have received as your parishioners, we beg you accept our warmest acknowledgments. We also receive as a proof of your continued interest in the welfare of the parish, the liberal proposal made by you, and accepted by the Church Corporation, of the exchange of parsonage property.

Permit us, dear sir, to express our satisfaction, that you with your kind and neighbourly family, are to continue to abide among us, that we may still have the advantage of your counsel, advice and friendship.

That you, Mrs. Whitwell and family, may long enjoy a large measure of health and happiness, in your comparative retirement, is the cordial wish, and earnest prayer of

Yours respectfully,

ALEX. YOUNG, C. W. WM. ROBERTS, C. W. D. T. R. NYE. P. P. RUSSELL, and forty others.

Parish of St. Armand West, 2nd April, 1856.

The Rev. C. A. Wetherall continued but a short time in the parish, having resigned the rectory in October, 1858, and was succeeded by the Rev. H. Montgomery, the present rector.

The Rev. R. Whitwell is still a resident with his wife and daughters in the village of Philipsburgh, in his 75th year, and in declining health; but able to take an interest in the growth and prosperity of the Church in which he laboured so long, having lived to see a second church erected in the parish, during the incumbency of the present rector, and an increase in the episcopate in Canada from one to five, since he first came to the country in 1821, and of the clergy from about 32 to 350. Taking a retrospect of these interesting events, gratefully, yet humbly, may we exclaim, "What hath God wrought?"

CLARE MARKET MISSION .- LONDON, ENGLAND.

The London Times devotes a full column to an account of the Clare Market Mission, originated some three years since, for the benefit of that crowded and busy district, the inhabitants of which are all of the working classes, though at the very bottom of them. So low are they in fact,
