

immediate results to themselves, guilty consciences, moral death, and banishment from the garden.

But God did not leave man to his just fate, a Deliverer was promised, the "seed" of the woman. Show that this meant Jesus, (Matt. 1: 21). How does he save? What price does he ask? Is he able to save everyone? What is the result of believing upon him? We wont feel like hiding from God; We need not fear death; We are sure of heaven at last.
