ANOTHER GREAT TRIUMPH.

THE BOWMANVILLE NEWS INTERVIEWS MR. JOHN HAWKENS.

And is Given Particulars of a Nine Years Suffering From Asthma, From Which He Has Been Restored to Health When His Case Was Looked on as Hopeless.

From the News, Bowmanville.

During the past five years the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have developed into a household word, and from several cases that have come under our personal observation, there is not the least doubt in our minds but that they are a boon to mankind, and in scores of instances have saved life, when everything else had failed. The cure of Mr. Sharp, whose case we published some time ago, was one of the most remarkable that we have heard of. To-day he is as well as ever he was in his life, and is daily knocking about in all weathers attending to his farm duties. Recently another triumph for Pink Pills came under our observation, and, after interviewing the person cured, he gave permission to make the facts public, and we will give the story in his own words. Mr. John Hawkens,

A "Greater New York" Bill having passed, New York will now embrace an area of 300 square miles, about twice that of London. The population in this area is three millions.

The recent census of London gave the population 2,411,271. This did not include Greater London, which has a population of some 1,766,421, and would make up a total of 6,177,693.

A shock of earthquake was felt in Dumfriesshire in the early morning, recently, the noise resembling a peal of thunder, which shook houses. A similar shock was felt about the same time in Cornwall and Switzerland.

who resides in the township of Darlington, some ten miles north of Bowmanville, and whose post office is Enniskillen, came to the county from Cornwall, England, some 45 years ago, and up to the time of his sickness had always been a hard-working man. One day, however, while attending his work, he got wet, took a chill and a severe cold followed, which finally developed to asthma. During the succeeding nine years he was a terrible sufferer from that distressing disease and gradually grew so bad that he could not work, frequently spent sleepless nights, and had little or no appetite. Finally he could scarcely walk across the room without panting for breath, and would sit all day with his elbows resting on his knees—the only position which seemed to give him ease, and at one time he never laid down for six weeks. As it was a hardship for him to talk, all he asked was to be let alone. During this time he had been doctoring and had tried nearly everything, and spent over $100, but got no relief. Finally someone recommended him to take Pink Pills. He thought they could do him no harm at any rate, and procuring a supply he commenced taking them. After he had taken three boxes he found that he was improving, and after taking two more boxes, to the astonishment of all, he walked across the field to the woods and cut up a cord of wood. He continued the pills and took two more boxes, making seven in all, and to-day is as well as he ever was, but always keeps a box of Pink Pills in the house. The neighbours all began to ask him what he had done, as the asthma had left him, and they never expected to hear of him being well again. To one and all he tells that it was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that did it, and has recommended them to scores of people since his recovery.

There is a rumour that when the Roman Catholic cathedral in London is finished a formal demand will be made for the translation of the bones of Edward the Confessor, with the shrine in which they are laid, from Westminster Abby to the new cathedral. It is argued that the dust of the Confessor should rest in holy ground, the Abby having become a secular place for shows.
