Works by the Rev. JOHN SCHULTE, DD., Ph. D.
ROMAN CATHOLICISM.
 Old and New. From the standpoint of the Infallibility Doctrine. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00. Cloth Extra, $1.50.

(From the Dublin University Magazine, Jan. 1st, 1877.)
 "The fairness with which he conducts the arguments is no less conspicuous than his knowledge. He does not suppress or misrepresent the views of his opponents, but gives full force to their objections and replies. His own views are set forth clearly and advocated forcibly, but without diligentious sophistry. Nothing can be better than the tone and temper in which he writes. There is no trace of bitterness or violence throughout the volume. Dr. Schulte uses no harsh words, indulges in no fierce invectives, pronounces no intolerent judgments. Such moderation and liberality as he displays are exceptional in controversy of any sort, and especially in religious controversy, which is usually anything but religious in spirit. Yet they cannot be ascribed to any want of zeal for truth on his part. He is thoroughly in earnest. Firmly persuaded that Romanism is a pernicious error, and very anxious to impress this conviction on the minds of others, Dr. Schulte's work may be of great service to all, whether Romanists or Protestants, who wish to investigate this matter."
 Those interested in this able work will be pleased to learn that the Rev. Dr. Rahm, of Philadelphia, is making arrangements to have it published in Germany at an early day.
