

Our Special Book Offer.

THE Publishers of "The Canadian Magazine" have been to much trouble to secure for their readers some of the best books and editions at reduced prices.

The following list of money-saving offers shows what success has attended their efforts. Not even a dry goods store, with its cheaply-printed publications, can equal this wonderful list of prices. These exceptional opportunities are offered in the hope of inducing our present subscribers to recommend the magazine to persons who do not know of its merits; but in order to make no distinctions and save complications, these offers are open to old or new subscribers. Every book sold is guaranteed.

What more suitable for a holiday present to a book-lover than one of the following volumes or sets:—
