

THE GRIP

FOUNDED 1856

INDEPENDENT JOURNAL OF HUMOR AND CARICATURE

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL PROGRAMME.

"The policy which I have outlined shall be carried out in its integrity. We shall not be terrorized by violent agitators nor deterred by timid and irresolute allies, but we shall move as deliberately and yet as quickly as the interests involved may justify. We are confident that the people of Ontario prefer the counsel of reason and prudence to the voice of passion or prejudice. The honesty of purpose already evinced will be taken as an earnest of what is yet to be done. On these lines we shall appeal to the people of Ontario when the proper time arrives, and await their verdict as calmly as the 'man who wraps the drapery of his couch around him and lies down to pleasant dreams.'"—Hon. G. W. Ross' Speech.
