

... have unimpeded access to all parts of the chemical weapons production facilities. While conducting their activities, inspectors shall comply with all applicable safety and health regulations. The State Party shall ensure that the inspectors are provided with the necessary information and facilities for the completion of their tasks.

(b) The State Party receiving the inspection shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, provide the inspectors with all the information and facilities necessary for the completion of their tasks.

The State Party receiving the inspection shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, provide the inspectors with all the information and facilities necessary for the completion of their tasks.

The State Party receiving the inspection shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, provide the inspectors with all the information and facilities necessary for the completion of their tasks.

The State Party receiving the inspection shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, provide the inspectors with all the information and facilities necessary for the completion of their tasks.

The State Party receiving the inspection shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, provide the inspectors with all the information and facilities necessary for the completion of their tasks.

The State Party receiving the inspection shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, provide the inspectors with all the information and facilities necessary for the completion of their tasks.

The State Party receiving the inspection shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, provide the inspectors with all the information and facilities necessary for the completion of their tasks.