

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am grateful to the Trading House and Countertrade Division of External Affairs Canada for financial assistance, and to the many practitioners for their assistance and encouragement during the data collection phase of this study. I also wish to thank M. Reshitnyk for his assistance and comments on an earlier version of this study, L. Carpentier for her preparation of the references and research assistance, the members of CASS (particularly, S. Altimas) for assistance in the preparation of the manuscript, and I. Alhassan and V. Gajski for their research assistance in conducting the mail questionnaire survey.
