IMMIGRATION FROM WEST INDIES

Question No. 1,174—Mr. Dinsdale:

1. In what countries of the West Indies does Canada have immigration offices?
2. How many applications from intending immigrants to Canada have been received from each country of the West Indies each year since 1960?
3. How many immigrants have been admitted to Canada from each country of the West Indies each year since 1960?

Mr. J. C. Munro (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Citizenship and Immigration):

1. None. Applications submitted by prospective immigrants in the Caribbean area are processed by visiting examination teams from Canada.
2. Not available. Such statistics are maintained, for workload purposes, only in countries where immigration offices have been established.
3. See the following table.
