

ten us. The memorial he has written you is a proof of it.

Every member of the Congress was allowed to speak his own language, but I am happy to be able to tell you that the real language of the International Geographical Exhibition of Venice, was French.

I remain, with the greatest respect, your obedient servant ;

FAUCHER DE SAINT-MAURICE

Commissioner for the Province of Quebec, at the International Geographical Exhibition of Venice.