

CHAPTER XIX.

- A Letter from some Indian Chiefs at Arbre Croche to Bishop Fenwick.—Last Visit of B. Fenwick to Arbre Croche.—His Untimely Death from Cholera.—Baraga's Account of the Bishop's Death..... 128

CHAPTER XX.

- Continuation of F. Baraga's Labors during the year 1832.—His first Indian Prayer-Book Printed at Detroit.—What Father Hätscher, C. S. S. R., and others say of Him and His Work ..... 132

CHAPTER XXI.

- Baraga's Labors during 1833.—Visits Little Detroit, Manistique, and Beaver Island.—Baptizes a Great Many Pagans during Pentecost-Week at Arbre Croche..... 136

CHAPTER XXII.

- F. Baraga's First Visit to Grand River.—He Baptizes many.—Returns to Arbre Croche.—Résumé of his Missions.—He Leaves Arbre Croche, and is Succeeded there by Rev. F. Sänderl, C. S. S. R..... 141

CHAPTER XXIII.

- Labors and Hardships of F. Baraga at Grand River..... 148.

CHAPTER XXIV.

- Description of Indian Drunkenness at Grand River.—F. Baraga's Life Endangered.—Indian Council.—Dedicates his New Church ..... 153

CHAPTER XXV.

- F. Baraga Leaves Grand River Mission.—Winters at St. Claire.—Goes to La Pointe, Wis..... 166

CHAPTER XXVI.

- Father Baraga Arrives at La Pointe.—Incidents of the Journey.—He builds his First Church at Middlefort, near the Old Indian Cemetery ..... 172

CHAPTER XXVII.

- F. Baraga's First Visit to Fond du Lac, Minn..... 177