

Contents

vii

	PAGE
Horses—Cautious March—The Beer Springs —A Mock Carousal—Skirmishing with Buffa- loes—A Buffalo Bait—Arrival at the Ren- dezvous—Meeting of Various Bands . . .	84
CHAP. IX.—Plan of the Salt Lake Expedition— Great Sandy Deserts—Sufferings from Thirst —Ogden's River—Trails and Smoke, of Lurk- ing Savages—Thefts at Night—A Trapper's Revenge—Alarms of a Guilty Conscience— A Murderous Victory—Californian Mountains —Plains Along the Pacific—Arrival at Mon- terey—Account of the Place and Neighbor- hood—Lower California—Its Extent—The Peninsula—Soil—Climate—Production—Its Settlement by the Jesuits—Their Sway over the Indians—Their Expulsion—Ruins of a Missionary Establishment—Sublime Scenery —Upper California—Missions—Their Power and Policy—Resources of the Country—De- signs of Foreign Nations . . .	92
CHAP. X.—Gay Life at Monterey—Mexican Hor- men—A Bold Dragoon—Use of the Lasso— Vaqueros—Noosing a Bear—Fight between a Bull and a Bear—Departure from Monterey— Indian Horse-stealers—Outrages Committed by the Travellers—Indignation of Captain Bonneville . . .	107
CHAP. XI.—Travellers' Tales—Indian Lurkers— Prognostics of Buckeye—Signs and Portents —The Medicine Wolf—An Alarm—An Am- bush—The Captured Provant—Triumph of Buckeye—Arrival of Supplies—Grand Ca-	