

In Two Vols., post 8vo. 1l. 1s.

THE HISTORY OF THE CONSTITUENT
NATIONAL ASSEMBLY OF FRANCE,
FROM MAY, 1848.

WITH PERSONAL SKETCHES OF THE MOST DISTINGUISHED CHARACTERS.

BY J. F. CORKRAN, ESQ.

"Incomparably the best book yet published in illustration of the Revolution of February. We have rarely read with greater pleasure a series of personal sketches."—Examiner.

"This work has freshness and originality."—Spectator.

"Very amusing, most readable, most interesting."—Morning Herald.

"We cannot too strongly recommend these volumes."—Daily News.

"Drawn with admirable skill by a pencil pointed with truth."—John Bull.

"We have never met with a book more certainly destined for general reading than this strange eventful history."—Literary Gazette.

VIENNA IN OCTOBER, 1848.

By THE HON. HENRY JOHN COKE.

"A book one must read through and then regret there is not more of it."—Jerrold's News.

"The fidelity of this narrative is apparent. It is tinged with considerable humour, and will take its place with Thackeray's clever Funeral of Napoleon. Mr. Coke is the brother of the Earl of Leicester, and writes with the frolic vivacity of youth."—Britannia.
