

The Lieut. Governour ask'd them, Will you lay your Commands and Injunctions on the other Tribes for that purpose, as far as you are able? Loren answered, We will do our utmost to oblige 'em to live peaceably towards us.

The Lieut. Governour replied, Do you say you will resent it, if any hostile Acts or Injuries should be committed against our People?

Loren. We will resent such Actions, and joyn our young Men with yours in such a case, and oblige them to be quiet and sit down. We mean in case any of the Tribes should rise against us, or resist us, we will take effectual means to set 'em down by force. As to the first Treaty we reckoned our selves obliged to this, but we account we are under much more and stronger Obligations to it now; since the Engagements our whole Tribe have taken upon them, in ratifying the Articles of the Treaty. We shall take effectual care therefore that any such Persons be obliged to sit down.

We have given our Words, and repeated our Promises and Engagements; and our Words are written down, and they will appear afterwards against us.

When the whole Conference was transcribed, it was on August 11. (may the Day be memorable and happy to us and ours after us) distinctly read over and interpreted to Wenemovet and the Indians with him; and the Lieut. Governour ask'd them if they understood it, and whether it was rightly taken down? They answered, That the Conference was rightly taken down, and not a word missing in it.
