

III.

No Member shall be entitled to receive a Book from the Library until he shall have paid all sums due from him to the Treasurer.

IV.

Each Member shall have the privilege of using any of the Books from the Library in the Reading Room, though at the same time in possession of a Book belonging to the Institute: yet it will be considered as an invariable rule that such Book must be resigned to any Member drawing it from the Library.

V.

Deposited Books and those marked in the Catalogue with an asterisk, together with such other Works as the Board shall from time to time designate as Books of Reference, shall not be taken from the Rooms, except by special permission of the Board.

VI.

A Member applying for Books shall receive but one volume at a time, except when the Plates belonging to the Work are bound in a separate volume, when that also shall be delivered if required.

VII.

A Folio or Quarto may be kept three weeks; any other sized work, two weeks. Any person detaining a Book longer, shall pay a fine of One Penny for a Duodecimo, Two Pence for an Octavo, Six Pence for a Quarto, per day, for every day's detention, and shall be debarred from the use of the Library until such fine be paid.

VIII.

If any person lose or injure a Book, he shall make the same good to the Librarian, and if such Book be one of a set, and may thereupon receive the remaining volumes as his property.

IX.

Every Member requiring a Book for use in the Reading Room shall enter the title of the same, with his signature, in a Register to be kept for that purpose, the Librarian shall countersign the entry when the Book is returned into his possession.

X.

No Member shall be allowed to write in any of the Books belonging to the Library; he shall also be responsible for its loss if not returned agreeably to the preceding regulation.

XI.

All Works on Party Politics and Controversial Theology shall be excluded from the Library, as inconsistent with the objects of the Institution.

XII.

In order to guard against the possible introduction of immoral works, all Books presented to the Institution
