CENTRAL LEAGUE ROLL OFF FOR THE CONNOR CUP.

On the Brunswick Bowling Club alleys tonight the Arlingtons, winners of the first series of the Central League, and Fishing Club. winners of the second series, will roll off for the O'Connor Cup and the championship of the league. As the Fishing Club have to give their opponents 177 pins handicap on the three games and total pins to decide, it will be a grind from start of the game until the last ball is rolled. All sorts of excitement is expected, as the keenest of interest is taken by both teams. The games will start prompt at 8 o'clock. On completion of this match the prizes will be presented to the winners of the league, on the alleys, as follows: Winning team $40, second $20, third $10, high average of league $10, second $8, third $6, high single game score $5, high three games $5, high average of each team, 9, at $6, $54. Total in cash prizes $158.60. O'Connor Cup to winning team, $75.

Syracuse Journal: Jack White, who played right field for the Stars last season, is anxious to land with the Syracuse Club. Recently Manager Burchell gave him his unconditional release, so Jack could sign up as a manager with some club, but all berths are now filled, and White finds himself without a job. He wrote Burchell that he is willing to come wrote Burchell that he is willing to come back here.

man, writes that he has four horses in training at the Readville track, just outside of Boston. He is without a topnotcher and is on the lookout for one, but says they are hard to find and harder to buy. Hodson was second in the list of money-winning drivers on the ice circuit.

A telegram from Roy Brothers, who went west with the mixed car load of horses belonging to various owners, states the horses arrived at Calgary in perfect condition, but over 30 hours late on account of snow blockades. The thermometer registered 12 below zero the day the horses arrived, which must have appeared a trifle chilly to The Saxon, the trotting stallion that Smith and Proctor recently brought north from Kentucky. The extreme cold would not affect Grand Opera and Lon McDonald that went thru the recent campaign on the ice.

In a letter to a friend in this city Tommy Murphy, the leading Grand Circuit reinsman, states that his sixty odd head of trotters and pacers located at the Poughkeepsie track are in fine condition after wintering on the banks of the Hudson. Tommy says there will be some awful pacing heats this year and many dead-heats if the dozen or so who have written him about pacers tell the truth. They all have nags to sell and in every case the horse can pace in two minutes, not 2.00% or 1.59%, but even time, according to the owners.

William H. McCarthy, better known as "Knapsack," who intends to train a string of trotters at the Empire track this year, confesses to being a veteran of the sulky, but objects to being classed as anything but a young man. The fact that he drove Little Brown Jug, 2.11%, to the world's record for pacers as long ago as 1881, and before that had been an understudy to Dan Mace, makes McCarthy seem older than he is. For the truth of harness racing history it should be known that "Knapsack" celebrated the fifty-eighth anniversary of his birth last Saturday. He was born at Elmira, N.Y., on March 22, 1855; was in the civil war before he was ten years old; rode running races at 11; at 12 was in the employ of Mace; at 20 was driving races; at 26 drove Little Brown Jug to the world's record, and at 58 is one of the prominent drivers of the Grand Circuit. The Canadian pacer Frank Bogash, jr., 2.1214, that went to Murphy in December, has taken on 150 lbs. in flesh since he arrived at Poughkeepsie. He will be in the Chamber of Commerce at Detroit and other big pacing events.

Pop Geers is to have the Mackenzie horses that will be raced on the Grand Circuit this year. The string includes the crack Joe Patchen II., 2.63½, the horse that shrewd horsemen expect will pace in two minutes or better this season. Geers, altho one of the leading relusmen for many years, has never yet had a two-minute ride, altho the veteran came near it when he drove The Harvester in 2.01, the world's record for trotting stallions.

D. S. Gillies and William Fitch of Hamilton recently bought a couple of royally bred two-year-old trotters of John E. Madden, Lexington, Ky.. One, The Toddler, a bay colt by Kentucky Todd (3), 2.08%—Belladi, 2.19, by Chehalis, 2.04%, is considered by the Kentuckians to be about the best colt of his age in the blue grass country. The other, Siletta, by Peter Leyburn—Sister Francis, by Walnut Hall, 2.08%, is a promising bay filly.

Fantasy, 2.06, by Chimes, a product of the old Village Farm, owned by the late C. J. Hamlin, will be bred this year to J. Malcolm Forbes, 2.09½, son of Bingen, 2.06½, and Santos (dam of Peter the Great, 2.07½). The champion 3-year-old trotter of 20 years ago, produced a foal last season after having been sold by auction for $90. Fantasy is the grand-dam of R. J. Mackenzie's big trotting gelding, Creosote, that in the hands of the local reinsman, Nat Ray, was the leading money winner among the trotters that raced on the ice the past winter. Her 2-year-old record of 2.08% stood for many years as the world's best until General Watts lowered the mark to 2.06%, after which Colorado E. came along and clipped two full seconds off that time and the record for trotters of that age now stands at 2.04%.

HARNESS HORSE GOSSIP

The Dufferin Driving Club meeting scheduled for June 4-6 at Dufferin Park, will open the season's racing. As there are no Ritchies or Knight Onwardos in sight this year for the slow class pacers and no Black Cats, Margot Leonards or horses of their class for the slow class trots, horsemen should have no hesitation in making entries. Indeed, this looks like a good year for an ordinary horse. (By Ed. Baker.) Blue Ribbon sale at the Repository to-

The Toddler was turned over to Harry Stinson, who will prepare the colt at Lexington for his future engagements. This colt is credited with a quarter in 34 seconds, as a yearling last fall.

April 1. or next Tuesday, is the day set for the closing of entries for the stakes to be decided on the Canadian Circuit this year, and owners of trotters and pacers that will likely race in this circuit should not overlook the fact.

John C. Ward, the local horseman, owner of Ritchie, 2.09%, and Greatest Heart, 2.12%, the pair of pacers that will be raced in the Grand Circuit this summer, has been away all week, accompanied by his trainer, Art Bedford, in search of a no-record pacer good enough for big track racing. They left here for Michigan to look at a green pacer located near Detroit and it was also their intention to go down to Lexington to inspect a green pacer by Direct Hal, on the Madden farm. Extravagant reports are in circulation about Madden's pacer and the shrewd Kentucky horseman holds him at a very high figure. However, the price will not stop Mr. Ward if the horse suits him.

General H., 2.04%, the stallion that George Haag of Calgary raced so successfully on the big tracks in the United States a couple of seasons ago, trotted a mile in 2.11½ in a race against time on the ice at Moscow, Russia, on Feb. 20. Centurion, a French bred trotter, by Wilburn M., won second money with a mile in 2.12½. Krepish, a native Orloff, trotted in 2.14%.

HORSE SALES.

Business has been good at the Stock Yards Horse Market this week, a large number of horses changing hands. An offering of two car loads of lumber woods horses lent interest to the sale yesterday, and met with ready buyers at from $140 to $200 each. Dealers appear satisfied with sales made, but complain that there is not much margin left them over country cost, after paying expenses. Local trade is fair, with some demand from the country and a sprinkling of western buyers. Yesterday sales were made to J. W. Davidson of Prince Albert, Sask., a car load of heavy draughts; Ed. Atkinson, Hamilton, car load of lumber woods horses; John Atkinson, car load of heavy draughts and lumber woods horses for shipment to Moose Jaw, Sask.; Dominion Brewery Co., city, bought three extra choice heavy geldings; International Contractors, Limited, a pair of grey geldings, weighing 3500 pounds; Peters Coal Co., city, bought several horses; John Coulter, city: C. trotters of that age now stands at 2.04%.

J. J. Brown (Uncle Jock), who died recently at Lexington, Mass., was actively identified with the trotting turf almost half a century, having driven his first race in 1855 and his last one in 1899. He was born at Royalton, Vt., in 1827, and in his boyhood knew Gifford Morgan and Green Mountain Morgan, grandsons of the original Morgan horse. In 1863 he drove the roan trotter Captain Magowan 20 miles in 58.25 in a match against time in Boston.

When the pacer Independence Boy, 2.01½, was recently let down out of the sling in which he had been strapped to the rafters at the Columbus (Ohio) driving park, after fracturing a hind ankle in a race there last fall, he immediately lay down and slept 14 hours, an almost unheard of thing for a healthy horse. It is supposed that he had slept little in the sling and was exhausted when released.

Last night the three Riverdale hockey teams presented their ever popular manager. Wm. Ferguson, with a magnificent Morris chair, showing in a small manner the esteem in which he is held by all that come in contact with him. The evening was spent in various games and terminated by a suitable response from the recipitent and several enthusiastic speeches by supporters and friends of the Riverdale. It is the intention of this enterprising association to further establish their reputation in the annals of organized sport. They will be represented their ever popular manager. Wm.
