TORONTO. RECORD FLIGHT MADE ON SUNDAY

Tlying Boat Was Ten Times Higher Than the City Hall.

PICTURES WERE TAKEN

Seven Views Will Be in The Sunday World Next Week.

Two World men and the Dean flying boat made two records Sunday morning. Flying 3300 feet high, Aviator T. C. Macaulay took the 75 horse-power boat up far beyond the altitude record for that type of machine, and he was carrying a passenger at that. The taking of pictures of Toronto from the air for the first time was the other record. With a special camera and leaning over the edge of the craft while she whirred over the town at 70 miles an hour The World men secured seven clear pictures—and to repeat, the first ever taken of Toronto from a flying machine—will appear in next Sunday's world. A great area of the city was covered by the flights, which also happen to be the only ones a flying boat has made over land here.

The altitude record of 3300 feet, more than ten times higher than the city hall, was made in a steady 25-minute climb in circles ten miles around. Aeroplanes have been thousands of feet higher, but the flying boat carries a hull as heavy as that of many boats and with pilot and passenser weighed 1800 pounds.

THE CREATEST DANCE

THE GREATEST DANCE

BOOK EVER PUBLISHED Written by the World's Leading Society Dancers, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle.

In this paper on another page, appears an announcement of "Modern Dancing" by Mr. and Mrs. Vernor Castle, the instructors of New York's "Four Hundred" in the Terpsichorean art, and acknowledged everywhere to be the leading society dancers of the world.

They are the foremost authorities on the modern dance today. There is no appeal from their decision as to what constitutes the correct methods in dancing. They have just finished, a book embodying all their ideas and theories, and the result of several years of successful instruction in the art to the leading members of society all over this country. The book describes in the most minute manner the steps and postures and all the movements of the modern dances. Besides this it is illustrated with moving picture films taken from the Castles themselves in the actual movements of the dance. The art of dancing the castles themselves in the actual movements of the dance. cing with elegance and refinement the modern dances can now be asily acquired by following the inons set forth in this master work of the dance. Our coupon offer en-ables each and every one of our readers to acquire the volume on terms that practically amount to a gift. We consider ourselves fortunate in being able to obtain the exclusive distribution in this city of the volume for our readers and urge upon them the necessity of supplying themselves, before our stock is exhausted. OFF TO ATTEND BIG CONFERENCE

Salvation Army Delegates Visit Toronto En Route to London.

Canadian delegates to the general conference of the Salvation Army, which opens in London, England, on June 11, already are starting on their voyage across the Atlantic. A special car carrying about thirty-five delegates from Winnipeg and the Canadian west was attached to G.T.R. train No. 16, which left the Union Station last night for Montreal. These delegates will sail on the Royal Edward from Montreal on Tuesday morning. The Toronto and Ontario repreentatives will leave the early part of WEEK next week. They will be accompanied by the territorial staff band and the Peterboro band. It is expected that Canada will be represent. ed by about three hundred delegates, while between four and five thousand ountries of the world in which the Salvation Army is known will be re-ortance in the army, as it occurs nly once in ten years. On the day of the great demonstration before the Crystal Palace, it is believed that there will be about 75,000 people in attendance. A special hall is being built on the Strand for the meetings of the congress. This hall will seat 5,000 people. The convention will probably last about one month.

A DILEMMA.

"At this point I have reached an amusing difficulty. I am like a hired man I once knew who had such a press of work on hand that 'He couldn't do nothin'. I want to give my conclusions of the Russell-Knight motor, but I cannot do it without giving unitie prominence to some quality that is really on a par with all its other qualities.

Four of the older workers of Broadway Tabernacle, members when the church was at the corner of St. Patrick street and Spadina avenue, gave short addresses at the silver jubilee of the present church structure last night. W. P. Gundy, president of the Toronto Board of Trade, whose father preached the last sermon in the small wooden church at St. Patrick street gave as this Cornel of the Russell-Knight.

"If I mentioned the silence of its operation you might think that noise-lessness was its grent claim to superiority. If I spoke of its economy, and I learned that the motor had used one-half the oil used in making the best previous record, you might think that economy was its leading features. If I insisted on its reliability, on the fact that it can be depended upon to do anything possible for a motor in any elicumstances, and do it more quickly than the most mettled horses respond to the reign or touch of the rider, you might think that economy was its leading feature. Delegates Close-Lipped.

Before the party left today the three delegates drove to the home of Secretary Bryan on Calumet Place and made a call of ceremony by leaving their cards. Mr. Bryan soon after returned the call by leaving his card for the delegates at their hotel. There was no meeting between the secretary of state and the Mexicans.

Thruout their stay the Mexican delegates steadily refused to make any public statement regarding their mission, and it was only indirectly thru representative Mexicans with whom they take dwhile here that a general idea of their viewpoint was obtained.

Confident of Success.

Before the departure of the Mexican delegates they were about the lobby of their hotel looking far more refreshed than on their arrival. They received newspapermen courteously but without breaking their silence.
