

NEW YORK STOCKS DULL AND HEAVIER

What Strength Was Shown Was Confined to Few Specialties.

MODERATE PRESSURE

Passing of Chesapeake Dividend Added to Bearish Feeling.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Dealings in stocks today suggested a state of suspended animation, the total output falling far below the average of the early days of the month.

Shares of recognized intrinsic value were under moderate pressure at intermittent periods, while specialties, whose chief claim to public attention was their participation in war contracts, made further gains.

U. S. Steel was in steady demand, the common and preferred gaining a point each. In the final dealings all leading stocks yielded a point or more.
