

Moon well Behaved. Full Saturday only

SUNDAY

4

(1905) Theodore Roosevelt ceases to be an accident.

MONDAY

5

"A Ward Healer is not always a Hospital Physician." — Esculapius.

TUESDAY

6

(1908) Senator Aldrich introduces bill for the suppression of the Trusts.

WEDNESDAY

7

"Two lobsters are better than one — if only one is in a chair." — Dotty Footlights.

THURSDAY

8

(536 B.C.) First tragedy exhibited at Athens on a wagon.

(1906 A.D.) The 536th "Uncle Tom" show starts out in the same wagon.

FRIDAY

9

"With the help of Providence and the aid of Newport, almost any one can get into the society columns." — Ward McAllister.

SATURDAY

10

HOMAGE — A post-mortem chattel.

MARCH

When a man marries for the loaves and fishes, he usually loafs and fishes.