This game gave both goalkeepers a chance to show their abilities. Several times Smith of Toronto had good chances, but his shots were wild. One of those long, crooked shots Nolan swhped through, and they were tite. In this game Hinton had his eye cut by Patterson and Burns collided with Wells, none of the players being badly hur. The fifth went to Toronto, scored by Nolan, who took the rubber on a long throw from Patterson, and after four minutes play the Torontos were head.

PATTERSON'S DOUBLE PLAY.
The sixth was a long one, thirteen minutes, when he was down, for whith Referee Carlind sent him to the fence, leaving Toronto with eleven men. Griffith went back to point and cleared in good style. He passed to Burns, who scored, and Toronto was two in the lead. Then the crowd yelled and cheered with excitement, as it looked as if the game was nearly cinched. They were fooled, however, for the seventh went to the visitors, Tucker doing the trick in four minutes.

The eighth game was a short one. Smith got the ball on a long throw from centre, and in three-quarters of a minute Toronto ball again two points to the good. Arrangements were now made in case of a tie at the close of time, as there was only one minute and five seconds left. But it was not necessary, for the green-shirted Shamrocks started off at a record gait, and in three-quarters of a minute Tucker won the match for his side by scoring the eleventh and last game of the day, leaving fifteen seconds to play, and the spectators left the grounds disappointed.

Up to the sixth game it looked like To-pronto's victory. The Shamrocks' home seemed stronger, and the victory went to Montreal after a hard struggle. The game was one of the fastest ever played in Rosedale, although a little on the rough side.

Pierce's efforts to secure employment being unavailing.

Finally, he resolved to go to Florida, where he once had worked in an hotel. It was impossible to take his wife with him, he thought, as he would have to beat his way to the land of flowers. But she refused to listen at any plan of separation and plainly stated her intention of going with him. Regardless of hardships that lay before them, the weary trudges over country roads or perilous rides on freight trains, she could not be disuaded from her determination.
