Thus the coronation spring races break all records for attendance in Toronto, beating last year by about 25 per cent, a conservative estimate being 50,000 people at Woodbine Park during the nine days' races. The books were all in line for a round-up. Seagram made a record by furnishing the favorites for the five flat races. He started brilliantly by capturing the first two off the reel, and the backers of the yellow and black were happy. Lastro was first on the day's winners. He had to be hard ridden to get up in time to beat Commena out a neck. The latter would have won with a stronger rider than Johnson. 	and as the winning mark was passed half a length separated the pair in the order named. John Ruskin was heavily played in the third race, but third was the best he could do. The finish saw Wire In and butter Scotch fighting it out all thru the home stretch. Wire In was the gamest and he beat the mare out a length. April Shower, one of the outsiders, beat the 3 to 5 favorite, Gold Cure, half a length in the fourth race. The latter had the early speed, but faltered when it came to a pinch. Sallust, well handled by Ray, captured the Street Railway Steeplechase. Highle was an eighth of a mile in front at one stage of the journey, but thred badly at the last turn of the field. The closing event went to Benckart. He got up in the last few strides, and beat Tiffany out a neck. Martimas, the Futurity winner of 1898, broke down in the Waterloo Handleap, and finished away back. He will probably be retired to the stud. The funeral of Jockey Meagher, who was fatally injured while riding St. Sulpice	and an attractive card brought out an enormous crowd to the Gravesend track this afternoon. The feature event, the Greater New York Steeplechase, about 2 1-2 miles, went to J. E. Widner's b.m., Miss Mitchell, 6, by Candlemas-Maggie Mitchell, the tavorite in the betting. Grand Mary was added to the race and coupled with Flora Willoughby as the Schulte entry. This pair was made favorite in the betting at 13 to 5. Seven youngsters faced the flag. The start was good and Mary Glen at once took command. She led to the stretch turn, when Flora Willoughby moved up and they raced head and head to the last eighth pole. Here Eva Russell, Deborah and Special Tax moved up and a grand struggle resulted, Eva Russell winning by a half length hard ridden. The surprise of the day was the victory of Remp, at 50 to 1.
