WRECK EVIDENCE CONCLUDED.

Guelph, April 15 .- The jury consider-that that report must be wrong, when the despatcher had the report from Georgetown that 713 left there at 12.32 or thereabouts? He certainly thought

The Stratford despatcher, when asked a similar question, the coroner observed, had answered that the phase of the situation had never struck him.

Two hundred and forty horses were sold at The Repository during the last week. They consisted mostly of general purpose and draught mares and geldings, and were of a good average class, many of them being exceptionally fine animals. The purchasers were from different parts of the provinces ally fine animals. The purchasers were from different parts of the province, and a few from the Northwest.

The lumber horses sold on Friday, belonging to Mr. Cashin, were a very good lot, and sold from $55 for a useful black mare up to $380 for a 5 and 6-year-old pair of geldings, weighing about 3000 lbs. Business was good.

The following is Walter Harland Smith's weekly report of prevailing prices: Jingle roadsters, 15 to 16 hands, $130 to $200; single cobs and carriage horses, 15 to 16.1 hands, $150 to $275; matched pairs and carriage horses, 15 to 16.1 hands, $325 to $450; delivery horses, 1100 to 1200 lbs., $145 norses, 15 to 16.1 hands, $325 to $450, delivery horses, 1100 to 1200 lbs., $145 to $175; general purpose and express horses, 1200 to 1350 lbs., $140 to $185; draught horses, 1350 to 1750 lbs., $150 to $235; serviceable second-hand workers, $50 to $120; serviceable second-hand drivers, $75 to $125.

Actuarial Examinations.

The annual examinations of the Actuarial Society of America, and of the Institute of Actuaries of Great Britain, are now being held in the city. These two bodies are probably the most important actuarial societies in the world. Several candidates from distant places are writing, as well as a number resident in the city. F. Sanderson, actuary of the Canada Life, is the supervisor of the examinations of the Actuarial Society of America, and T. Bradshaw, actuary of the Impgrial Life, supervisor of the examinations of the Institute of Actuaries of Great Britantic Society of Great Britant the Institute of Actuaries of Great Bri-

The annual at home of the employes was held in St. George's Hall last night.
The hall was handsomely decorated with flags and the stage covered with 22x85 is potted plants, the effect being greatly neightened by a display of silver crophies. About 200 couples were pretrophies. About 200 couples were present, and enjoyed the dance until a late hour. The committee in charge was made up of Jos. Fluke, A. Moulthroup, Jas. Bain. There was not a quorum at the meeting of the sewers committee this evening. Those present went on with the who think the Canadian firms are trying to hold up the city on the price of sewer pipe, said they would vote in favor of giving the contract to a Scotch firm, altho they would have to pay a higher price. They think it would be worth the money to show that aldermen will not submit to a hold-up. The matter will be decided at the next meeting of the committee. Tenders for sewers on Jackson and Hess streets were submitted by J. J. Armstrong and G. Hummell, but the contracts will not be awarded till next Tuesday evening.

Murray had been to Peterboro to ching in the craig poisoning case, but had returned, with no facts that would sustain suspicious theories.

London, April 15.—Depreciation in glit-edged securities has curtailed the luxuries ow women as well as of men. Women have had their pin money diminished and have had to retrench in dress. The chairman of Jay's, Limited, speaking at the annual meeting yesterday, said that many of their customers who bought costumes, millinery and sunshades in anticipation of Ascot week last year, did not give fresh orders, altho they were unable to wear the costumes at Ascot because of the bad weather. They used them for other functions later.
