Subscriber—How is it that you have printed that long poem three times in your columns? Editor—Well, really, I didn't suppose anyone would find it out.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellor's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly, and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

A LOCAL BUDGET

—Mrs. R. J. Blackwell has left for a two weeks' visit to Chicago.

—Andrew Mathers, of Dorchester South, has assigned to A. Robinson.

—Mr. Charles Currie, manager of the Lima Street Railway Company, Lima, Ohio, is here on a visit.

—Among the guests at the Hotel Del Monte, Preston Springs, are noted the names of Mr. and Mrs. John Pringle, of this city.

—Mr. John A. Leitch, chairman of the Brantford public school board, visited some of the London schools yesterday afternoon.

—Among the Canadian visitors in London, England, registered on Sept. 20, was Major A. M. Smith, of London, at 48 Stratford road, Kensington.

—Mr. McDougall, of Queen's avenue, with his daughter, Miss G. M. McDougall, are visiting friends in Chicago and St. Paul. They expect to return shortly.

—Chief of Police Williams left yesterday afternoon for his holidays. He will spend some time shooting in Muskoka, and will later on visit Cleveland, Buffalo and other cities.

—St. Thomas Times: The news of the acquittal of Actor Emerson at London was met with approval on all sides in this city. Everybody seemed decidedly pleased to hear that he had been found not guilty.

—Mr. Charles Clarke and wife have returned home to Toronto Junction, after spending their honeymoon in Chicago, New York, and principal points in the United States and Canada, being under the parental roof for the past few days.

—Stratford Beacon: Miss Laura Stewart left on Tuesday for London, where she will take a course in the London Conservatory of Music. Miss Stewart has marked musical abilities, and being a good worker, will no doubt, show good results.

—Huron Examiner: We understand that Mr. W. W. Thompson, who has had charge of the oatmeal mill here for some years, intends removing to London shortly, to take charge of their mill there. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson have made many friends here who will deeply regret their removal from town. We have not learned who will be Mr. Thompson's successor in Seaford.

—Some disappointed travelers were left behind at the G. T. R. station yesterday owing to the changes in the new time-table. The Stratford train now leaves at 7:10 a.m. and 11:20 a.m. instead of 7:15 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. The accommodation going east leaves at 8:10 a.m. instead of 8:20, and the New York express, which formerly left at 4:45 p.m., now departs at 4:50. No other trains are affected except that those on the Stratford branch arrive at 11:10 a.m. and 1:10 p.m. in place of 11:05 a.m. and 1 o'clock.

—At St. Matthew's Church last Sunday special services were held on the occasion of opening the new pipe organ. It is a magnificent instrument as regards tone and volume. A choral service was rendered by the choir, and as an evening offertory Ambrose's "The Sweetly Soothing Thought" was sung by Miss M. E. Cripps, with good effect and remarkable expression. At the conclusion of the evening service

LEAVING LONDON.

Mr. Thomas Hallam, jun., will leave for Halifax, N. S., on Thursday, to take a course of study in Dalhousie College. His many friends will wish him success. Mrs. Hallam also leaves London with her son, to join her husband at McAdam Junction, N. B. Both mother and son have many friends in the city, who regret their departure from London, but wish them every success in their new home.

GENERAL MEETING OF PRESBYTERIANS TONIGHT.

This (Tuesday) evening a general meeting of all the Presbyterians of the city will be held in the First Church, corner of Dufferin and Park avenues, when addresses are expected from two able outside speakers—Rev. Dr. Campbell, of Renfrew, and Rev. Dr. Robertson, of the Northwest—on the augmentation fund, and others of the undertakings of the denomination. A general invitation to all the Presbyterians of the city and vicinity is extended. Eight sharp.

LEPER MISSION.

The October meeting of the leper mission was held in Somerset Hall Monday afternoon. Mrs. Robertson, the president, had charge of the meeting and gave an instructive and helpful Bible reading on the subject of God's love. An article from the pen of Miss Lila Watt, dealing with the work of the Canadian auxiliaries, was read by Miss Furdum, and contained many useful suggestions for future work, while at the same time giving a short sketch of past work. Miss Ethel Gunn very materially added to the enjoyment of the meeting by her rendering of most effectively the inspiring missionary solo, "Go Forth."

WEST LONDON E. L.

One of the most interesting and largest meetings of the West London Methodist Church Young People's Society was held last night. A reception service and election of officers were two features of the evening's meeting. During the past year the league has lost many valuable workers, and thus it was a year of hard labor for the officers, who so faithfully rallied around our motto, "Look Up, Lift Up, for Christ and the Church." The meeting was opened by hymn and prayer, after which Miss Spence sang a solo in her usual pleasing manner. The pastor, Rev. A. G. Harris, gave an excellent address on "Our Pledges," to which seventeen new members signed their names. The following officers were elected for the next six months: Honorary president, Rev. A. G. Harris; president, Mr. Ed Wilkins; first vice-president, Miss Sharp; second vice, Miss Harris; third vice, Miss Spence; fourth vice, Miss A. Greenway; secretary, Mr. Percy Wilkins; treasurer, Miss Graham; organist, Miss E. W. Harris. The president was received with a warm welcome to which he replied in a timely and good address on the new year's work. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers, and was acknowledged by the retiring president, Miss Fio Ware, who thanked the league for the good attention that was given to her in her labors.

A very pleasant and successful entertainment was held in the Beechwood school, school section No. 6, East Williams Eio Ward, on Wednesday evening, the evening, the teacher, Mr. Hugh McGougan, was presented with a kindly-worded address and a Standard Dictionary, in two handsomely-bound volumes, the gift of his pupils. Mr. McGougan is leaving the school to attend the medical school in London.

A PLEASANT TIME

Happy Social Evening at First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. W. J. Clark was the guest of the evening last night at the First Presbyterian Church.

A very enjoyable reception and conversation was given for him by the ladies of the congregation in the lecture room.

The opportunity of joining to welcome Mr. Clark was fully made use of, and a very large number were there to meet him and to testify their appreciation of his recent decision to decline the call to Erskine Church, Toronto, and remain the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

The hall was very tastefully decorated with flowers, set off by the national leaf in its most gorgeous autumnal tints.

During the evening speeches complimentary to Mr. Clark were made by Mr. Robert Reid, Mr. W. C. Ferguson and Mr. McLeay, the latter making a capital chairman. Mr. Clark responded in a vigorous and interesting speech, in which he held up the ideal relationship between pastor and people.

The following programme, under the direction of Mr. Barron, agreeably enlivened the proceedings, after which those present enjoyed the hearty hospitality for the ladies of First Church are famous.

FORCIBLE ADDRESS

By Rev. Morgan Wood, in the First Congregational Church—"The Good Old Days, or the World on the Move."

A fairly large audience assembled in the First Congregational Church last night to hear Rev. Morgan Wood, the noted Toronto divine, lecture on "The Good Old Days, or the World on the Move." The reverend gentleman's addresses always leave a favorable impression upon his hearers. His remarks are marked by earnestness and frequent outbursts of eloquence, calculated to carry conviction to the minds of his hearers. His flow of language, force of utterance, remain unimpaired.

Rev. Mr. Wood, in his graphic way, described the ups and downs of the world, to whether the world was becoming worse or advancing. Pessimistic persons, speakers and press were throwing broadcast on all sides the statement that the world was not as good as in the days of old, foretelling a century ago. The matter with these persons was that they had a narrow horizon of observation. The speaker contended that the world had made its most rapid strides in the last quarter, especially in the last quarter, which he described as the golden quarter of advancement. A number of forcible illustrations were given, which showed clearly that the world was advancing, both in Christianity and scientific research. The march forward had been rapid and steady. The church was now stronger than at any previous period, and he

Mrs. Knight, 17 Hanover Place, Toronto, makes the following statement:—

MY mother, Mrs. Wright, who lives at Norval, near Doncaster, suffered a summer and winter with Eczema in her feet. She could not walk, and very seldom got any sleep. It became so bad that she was perfectly raw from the toes to the knees. After trying every available remedy without receiving any benefit, and almost hopeless of relief, she was advised to try Dr. Chase's Ointment. She has altogether used 8 boxes since commencing, but with the happiest results, for she is now completely cured. There is but one scar on one of her feet, a memento of her fearful suffering condition. Any person desiring further testimony in this case is at liberty to communicate with Mrs. Wright at her address, Norval P.O.

Mrs. Knight says after such a grand success, is it any wonder we recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment?

The Secret

If other merchants had bought their Autumn Dress Goods and Millinery in September, when Mr. Kingsmill bought ours, instead of away back early in the summer, their styles would be three months newer than they are—but they didn't—and so their styles are no longer the proper styles.

Come to Kingsmill's and see the difference between "the late styles" of other stores and "the latest styles" of the fashionable store.

CITY HALL NOTES

Contractors Harding & Leathorne have been anxious to begin work on the syphon section of the sewer system for the past two weeks, but have been delayed because Mr. John Taylor, the owner of some of the property between Evergreen avenue and the coves, has not yet turned his deed over to the city. The engineer was willing to proceed with the work without waiting for the deed, if Mr. Taylor would waive the right to consider such action an acceptance of the title, but Mr. Taylor refused to consent. The deed is not yet at hand, and two weeks of fine weather have passed by. How much longer the obstruction will exist is not known, and meanwhile the inconvenience to the contractors and engineers is annoying.

War was openly declared between Ald. Carrothers and the mayor last night. The census bell is not of recent origin, apparently. Ald. Carrothers' impeachment of the mayor at the council meeting revealed the part the latter's course at the time the contracts were let for the new hospital plays in the present conflict. The facts all came to light at the time, and the mayor was exonerated by the council. But it seems that Ald. Carrothers was not satisfied.

Building permits have been issued to John Clark, Euclid avenue, and E. J. Williams, 463 Simcoe street for additions to residences.

Work was begun yesterday leveling off South street, where the trunk sewer was laid. Later the street will be graveled.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was induced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me good."

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Julia Arthur's Second Visit to London in "A Lady of Quality"—"A Bachelor's Honeymoon" for Thursday—"Uncle Dick's" Performance Last Evening.

MISS JULIA ARTHUR.

The return of Miss Arthur to this city for a one-night engagement next Monday night, Oct. 10, and her production of the magnificent stage masterpiece, "A Lady of Quality," will undoubtedly attract to the Opera House one of the largest audience it has ever held. Miss Arthur's appearance here will always be remembered. It is safe to say that the stage of the Opera House never held more beautiful scenic effects than she produced here. Miss Arthur is distinctly a Canadian actress. She comes supported by the same excellent company as supported her last year, with but two exceptions, and the performance will in every way be as magnificent as last year.

"A BACHELOR'S HONEYMOON."

"A Bachelor's Honeymoon" is a three-act farce, written by John Stapleton. It has been played with great success in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Pittsburg and San Francisco, and a few of the provincial cities. It began its second season a few weeks ago, and will come here and appear at the Grand on Thursday evening. This is the period for comedy. "A Bachelor's Honeymoon" is a vehicle of fun. There is a demand from all theatrical quarters and by all local managers for comedy, and who fully wish that comedy were in complete possession of the boards. Miss Villa McLeod will enact the part of Juno Joyce, an actress, and doubtless she will be an admirable successor to the late Berenice Wheeler, who lost her life on the La Burgogne a few weeks ago.

SOL SMITH RUSSELL.

Sol Smith Russell made his annual appearance at the Grand last night, and was, of course, welcomed by a large audience—a rich tribute to Mr. Russell, considering the heat. The popular comedian noted this fact in his usual quaint little curtain speech, which his admirers demanded. The play, "Uncle Dick," is like all Mr. Russell's productions—sweet, wholesome, idyllic. It is, of course, written to fit Mr. Russell's peculiarities, but it will not rank with "The Poor Relation," "Peaceful Valley," or the other whimsical favorites which the public learned to love. Mr. Russell made the best of his role, and was perfectly supported.
