Cornell, one iron manufacutrer, of New York), who was declared a bankrupt in this city on Nov. BRANT,S. 17, applied for an order of discharge. The judge said he considered Mr. Cornell's bankruptcy was due to gross ex-travagance, and suspended his discharge four years. Mr. Cornell, according to report, in addition to his income of $20,000 a year, received $125,000 under the will of his father in 1887. Since August, 1894, it is added, Mr. Cornell has lived at a rate of $55,000 a year.

PRINCE ALBERT'S CRUISE. London, March 3.-Prince Albert of Belgium spent the night in London, and embarked on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Gross, at Southampton, accompaniel by Col. Jungblutte, Dr. Melis, his private physician, and two servants. Col. Jungblutte said the tour of the prince was more for study than pleasure. He expected to study the United States Government methods, visit factories, mines and farms, and observe the people of the United States in their habits, thought and manner of living, all of which, he added, would be useful for the prince's future. In conclusion, the colonel said the prince had not given a thought to the social phase of his trip, and had not decided whether he would or would not travel incognito.

CABLE NOTES. In pursuance of an imperial order, the Bohemian Diet has been closed. Lord Rosebery and Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the secretary of state for the colonies, made long speeches in London in connection with the approaching elections for the county council of London. They referred especially to the municipal corruption in the large cities of the United States. Baron Von Gautseh, the Austrian premier and minister of the interior, reported to Emperor Francis Joseph that the Socialist movement among the Hungarian peasantry has so far abated that the danger may be considered past. The police campaign against the Socialists in Hungary has caused widespread offense by the forcible photographing of respectable university professors, doctors, journalists and others suspected of the slightest connection with the movement. RUSSELL-Vacant. LIBERAL MAJORITY MAINTAINED. Later returns fully maintain the original claim of The Advertiser that the Hardy-Ross Government is sustained by a fair working majority. With the reports recorded from the constituencies in yesterday's edition, it is seen that the government already has 48 straight supporters, with an election yet to be held in a strong Liberal constituency, and an independent support-er in the person of Mr. Beatty, who de-feated the Conservative candidate in Parry Sound. This makes a total of 50 government supporters, and leaves the Conservatives with 43 seats and the Patrons with one. In this count all the doubtful seats are placed in the Conservative column. They are West and South Huron and North Toronto. In the case of West Huron the majority against Mr. Garrow is but one, and it is understood one poll in the riding is in dispute. In South Huron both parties claim success, and in North Toronto the result is so close and there were so many "tendered" ballots that Mr. Marter cannot be sure of his seat until the ballots have been subjected to a scruting At present this seat is counted had 160.

South Lanark—Matheson, Conservative, SLATER BROS had 160. TENDERS will be received at this office up to 5 o'clock on Saturday, March 5, for the repairing of the city water carts.

the nature of the constituencies, have the nature of the constituencies, have all declared for the government. Mr. Conmee has secured a magnificent majority in West Algoma, while Mr. Farwell and Dr. Bridgeland are safely seated, according to the latest reports. Dr. Bridgeland in particular deserves congratulation on his victory in Muskoka, a riding which has stayed with the Conservatives through several parthe Conservatives through several parliaments. The victory was achieved by the candidate's splendid campaign and his high personal popularity, few men through the huge riding being so well known, and fewer still so liked as the popular Bracebridge phy-

MINISTERS ON DECK.

Yesterday afternoon a cabinet council meeting was held in Toronto, and was attended by all the ministers, exception Mr. Ross. Mr. Gibson took his defeat good-naturedly. He refused to discuss the matter with the press, and had nothing to say, except that votes had defeated him. Mr. Dryden was equally philosophical, saying that he felt more for the disappointment of those who worked so hard to secure his election than for his own defeat. In fact, he said, he rather welcomed a return to private life. The duties of a minister were arduous, the demands many, the rewards meager and the task a thankless one at best. He had often feit that he would like to drop out if he could do so in an honorable manner, and the opportunity had at last presented itself. Premier Hardy was very busy all day long and could see no one.

SPEAKER EVANTUREL'S POSI-

TION. Montreal, March 3.-Hon. F. E. A. Evanturel, speaker of the Ontario Legislature prior to the late dissolution, says the Herald, was greatly pleased when the final announcement showed Mr. Hardy to have been sustained by a working majority, though he was sorry to learn of the defeat of Messrs. Gibson and Dryden. Mr. Evanturel expressed the opinion that Russell would elect a Liberal, and said he would be surprised if the result in Nipissing did not show the election of Mr. Loughrin, the Liberal candidate, when full rethe Liberal candidate, when the turns were in. He felt sure that his in Dundas. It is only 137. ince of Ontario had stood by Mr. Hardy. Referring to the rumor that he was to be called to the cabinet by Mr. Whitney in the event of that gentleman's very glad the Herald had in the was very glad the Herald nad, in a recent article, denied the existence of any such probability. He had been annoyed by the publication of the rumor, and had set himself out to find its origin. He learned that a young Montreal advo-Eastern Ontario, had presumed upon the fact that Mr. Evanturel was not opposed in Prescott, and had sought to impose upon the electors by letting it be thought that it was because of the good-will of Mr. Whitney that no opposition was made to the speaker's reelection. The Conservatives assiduously cultivated the idea that as speaker Mr. Evanturel was as favorable to one party as to the other. In this way the rumor was evolved that there was an understanding between Mr. Whitney and Mr. Evanturel. He did not blame them for making what capital they could out of his election by acclamation, although it was scarcely fair to and niece, of London, were on board. IN EASTERN ONTARIO.

Cornwall, March 3.—Complete returns in this district gave Mr. McDonald, Conservative, 431 majority in Glengarry; Mr. McLaughlin, Conservative, majority in Stormont, and Mr. Whitney, Conservative, 131 majority in Dundas. This represents a gain of two seats for the Conservatives, Glengarry and Stormont having been represented in the last legislature by two Patrons. Dundas remains Conservative. A careful analysis of the returns reveals some startling facts. In Glengarry, Mr. McRae, Liberal, and ernment, and their combined vote exceeds that of the opposition member by some hundreds, so that popular opinion in Glengarry clearly favors the government, and an opposition mem-ber is returned only by the ill-advised division of the Liberal vote. In Stormont a similar condition of affairs exists. The government vote, as represented by the bailots cast for Mayor Mulhern, the regular Liberal candidate, and for Mr. John Bennett, the Independent, who gave Mr. Hardy a consistent support in the last Legislature, exceeds the total vote for Mr. McLaughlin, Conservative, by 600, so that again the popular voice is fa-vorable to the administration, and a fluke gives Mr. Whitney a supporter. But it is perhaps in Dundas that the result of the balloting is most surprising. In 1894, Mr. Whitney, as a plain member of the assembly, carried the riding by 187 majority. Now, with all the prestige of opposition leader and possible premier of the province to attract the popular vote, the majority for Mr. Whitney is reduced to 131, and there is little doubt that under normal, con-ditions Mr. W. B. Lawson, the plucky young Liberal candidate, would have easily redeemed the riding. At any rate he has given Mr. Whitney a severe shaking, and in the narrow Conservative majority is revealed the reason of the persistent rumors which were in circulation at the beginning of the campaign, that the opposition leader would seek another constituency. OTHER LATE RETURNS. South Brant-Hon. A. S. Hardy's majority is as follows: Brantford City, 166; Brantford township, 178; Burford, 103; Oakland, 80. Total majority for East Wellington-Craig, Liberal, 157 majority. Complete returns.
