Ottawa Story Says Many Members of Party Would Not Be Averse To Accepting Leader's Resignation— Action of Murdock Has Created a Furore.

Ottawa, June 25 .- (By the Canadian Press).-A rumor is current in political circles that Sir Robert Borden will resign the premiership immediately after prorogation of Parliament. The rumor lacks confirmation by any responsible parties. It takes the form of a belief that Sir Robert will submit his resignation to a caucus of Unionists, which will be held early next week? It is imssible to get a representative idea of the manner in which the resignation would be received by his party. It is believed that a number of Unionists, though perhaps not a majority of the party, would be not averse to accept ing it. As a successor, Hon. Arthur Meighen is spoken of in the same

Ottawa, June 25.—The resignation of James Murdock as the last remaining member of the Board of Commerce has created a furore. Although the series of revelations and accusations appeared in all morning papers, it was not till this forenoon that Sir Robert Borden actually received the letter of resignation itself. What Sir Robert will do in the circumstances he has not yet disclosed. But the charges made by Mr. Murdock will almost inevitably lead to a sheaf of questions when the House meets this afternoon. It is likely that Sir Robert will make in the House, either this afternoon or subsequently, a statement on the attitude and intentions of the Government in the matter.

Want Him to Specify. CREATED FURORE.

Want Him to Specify.

There is a feeling among Government supporters that, Mr. Murdock should be called upon to specify which members of the cabinet, to use Mr. Murdock's words, "began to undertake to minimize to as great an extent as possible what they believed to be the unnecessary and unfair provisions of these two acts (fine board of commerce act and the combines and fair prices act) when applied to the business of those for whom these honorable gentlemen no doubt had first regard." It is also felt that Mr. Murdock should be called upon to give particulars of his charge that, following the resignation of Judge Robson, several members of the cabinet "undertook to thwart the board's activities by quiet and hidden restrictive opposition." Want Him to Specify.

Calder's Viewpoint.

The only member of the cabinet whose name is specifically mentioned is Hon. J. A. Calder. Mr. Murdock declares that the viewpoint of Judge Robson was well known by various members of the cabinet, "and especially by the Hon. Mr. Calder."

After the adjournment Sir Robert Borden stated that the matter of in-demnity had been discussed, and the members had been promised that it would be fully considered and placed the cabinet and the governor general. The salaries of cabinet minis-ters and judges also came up for dis-cussion, and it is likely that some an-nouncement in regard to these will be made in the course of a day or so.
