A Happy Event Was St. Paul's Annual Garden Party.

L'AMAROUX, July 1.—(Special).—A magnificent success in every sense of the word was the annual garden party and concert held at "Maple Villa," the home of Elias Woods, last night. More than 400 members and well-wishmore than 400 members and well-wishers of St. Paul's Anglican Church, under whose auspices the affair was held, were present, and from first to last there was not an idle moment.

The culingry deportment there was not an idle moment.

The culinary department was ever a winning feature, the ladies of St. Paul's having long demonstrated their pre-eminence in this respect. Football and other games furnished lots of interest and excitement, while the musical and literary features were well sustained.

Rev. Mr. Fenning, Rev. Mr. Power, Rev. Mr. Rae and Mr. Woods, the latter the host of the evening, spoke briefly. A letter of regret was received from W. F. Maclean, M.P., who was absent in Ottawa, regretting his inability to attend.

The latter are fed and watered every day, one design class dinghles, was won by Simpson, R.H.Y.C. other prize winners were: Bruce Harvey, R. H.Y.C.; Gordon Matheson, R.H.Y.C.; Pain, R.H.Y.C.

"As long as Mr. Maclean is engaged in the good work of trying to secure a two-cent fare for us, we will forgive him," said Rev. Mr. Fenning, the chairman, and the sentiment struck a responsive chord, as was evidenced by the volley of cheers which followed. Fully $75 was realized.

THISTLETOWN, June 30.—A very successful picnic was held on the school successful picnic was held on the school grounds on Saturday, under the auspices of the Women's Institute (Thistletown branch). The grounds and tent were prettily decorated by A. Meharg, assisted by H. Garbutt. The afternoon terminated in races for the children, lacrosse, football, baseball, basketball and other games. Tea was served in the grove. Great credit is given the president, Mrs. George E. Farr, and Secretary Miss Thrisnelda Kingdon, and the other ladies. A vote of thanks is extended to the ladies and gentlemen in helping to make the picnic a success.
