THREE IN A ROW FOR LEAFS' NEW LEADER

Leafs Nosed Out Birds in Thrilling Game-Bone by Twombly Helped.

Blackburne's Leaflets march bravely on. The new leader has yet to lose a game ,and the triumph that his athletes put over yesterday landed them high and dry in third place. It was a tidy little argument with the Leafs on top of a 2 to 1 score. A prize bone play put over the winning run for us and we give thanks.
Herbert and Bentley had a spicy argument for thetwirling duel, with the Baltimore pitcher having the edge. Herbert was in several tight corners, but pitched himself out. He allowed seven hits, and five was the lot given by Bentley.

The seven hits, and five was the lot given by Benting. With two down in the fifth we put across the run needed to win. Kritchell banked into right, and Herbert followed with a safety in the same direction. Twombly and Bates chased the ball, with the latter getting it on the first bounce. Twombly got to thinking about the folks pet daughted in the ball like it was his pet daughted in the ball like it was his pet daughted in the first bounce. Twombly got to thinking about the folks and Kritchell found that Twombly was still throwing endearing looks at the mito in his hand and kept right on to the home station. Twombly stopped his musing plate as Kritchell was arriving at the place and round a minute later place in the first his peck of trouble in the second round. Some smart work saved Herbert apek of trouble in the second round aught Twombly in his first slumber act. Herbert wheeled around a minute later and nipped kort off the half-way light. Smith hit a lusty on to read in between the continuous places of the service of the hours, kritchell popped out, and Herbert fanned. Truesdale tapped to Kopf and the latter gentleman bobbied it and then heaved it to the stand. Smith his gains up the path and the Dunnites tied it up. Bates got aboard the free jitney, but Russell fould out. Earber beat out a hit to Blackburne and Herbert sent up the free flight and a run was forced over. Lamar erded it by lifting to Murray and everybody expanded.

We described the place the head off Rates. Herbert gas the place of the place to head off Rates. Herbert gas the right field fence. The ball bounded back towards second and Trout caught up to it by fast exprinting. The minute the Lead of the place to head off Rates. Herbert had another anxious session in the 8th. Russell and Barber poked safely and Herbert sent them up around with a wild pitch. This left men on second and third with nobody out. Two pop flies and a roller show how hard Herbert worked to get himself out of deep the worked it so well the was strong with men on bases and received great support, especially from Pratt, Shotten and Sister. ### GRAYS LEAD BISONS BY A SINGLE POINT

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Fielder Jones, manager of the St. Louis American League Club, has been talking too much thru the newspapers. He said so himself today when asked what he thought of the chances of his team to win the pennant. self today when asked what he thought of the chances of his team to win the pennant.

Jones said he has been misquoted so frequently he didn't like to say much, but added if the promise was given that his words would not be twisted, he might let out a little secret. The promise given, Jones said:

"It think we have a good chance to win the pennant."

There it is, just as he said it. He believes his team has an excellent chance to win. He added that he must have an even break in New York and Boston to get back home ready to make a spurt toward the flag.

Jones' team is displaying a classy brand of the national game, and yesterday's even break with the Yankees, while the White Sox were taking a beating at Washington, placed the Browns in a position to dispute third place with Comiskey's high-priced warriors. The Browns are only hal fa game behind Chicago.

The lankees vaulted into a tie with Chicago for second place, and with the Browns battling Bill Donovan's crew, a pretty fight is on for the runner-up place.

WEAR PAPER CLOTHING

FOR THE WINTER WINDS

A new use for paper has been found in the manfacture of clothing for avitators. Paper is better than most we fabrics for keeping out the cold emcountered at high altitudes.

A special kind of paper, this and light in weight, has been made for this purpose. It is so tough that it can be washed and dried.

The justing fight is on for the runner-up place.

A MISAPPLIED PUDDING.

Mr. Coddles was suffering from that run-down feeling. In fact, he might have sat as a model for the artist who draws those pictures, every one of which is alleged to tell a story.

A bright idea came to him, namely, that he should visit some friends in Bradford, for he knew that there was no cure quite equal to Yorkshire hospitality. But hardly had he come to them when he caught cold and had to take to bed.

With kind thoughfluiness, his hostess baked a Yorkshire pudding, which she carried to his room.

Three hours later she again visited the invalided Mr. Coddles, "Well," she asked, "have yo' etten it all oop?"

Regardless of the Remarkable Knock-Out Record of Charlie

COLORADO SPRINGS. Aug. 25.—With Freddie Welsh and Charlie White on the scene of battle, and settled down to the hard grind of daily training, Colorado Springs, where the struggle to win and retain the world's lightweight crown is to take place on Labor Day afternoon, is fast becoming the Mecca of sportsmen from every nook and corner of Uncle Sam's domains. All roads seem to lead to the pretty little city nestled down under the shadow, of Pike's Peak, where Promoter Eddie Pitts is preparing to dish out the fistic tid-bit of a decade.

That both boys are deadly in earnest is already being attested to by the battered appearance of the small army of sparring partners who are helping condition these two gladiators. White's powerful punch is already the talk of the sharpshooters who are trying to fix the odds for the coming contest.

Below is a list of men White has knocked out in the last few years. White's record in number of knockouts scored outshines that of the present champion, and all of the leading aspirants to his title combined.

White has proven hisself to be the fiardist-hitting lightweight in the world, and on his proven ability to score knockouts in fifty per cent. of his contests, over good opponents, he has been given first chance at the title.

Welsh will likely enter the ring favorite. It is the unusual for a challenger to rule favorite over a champion, but it is a strange coincidence that Welsh was the choice over Ritchie when he dethroned the Californian, two years ago, in London. Of course, it was natural to suppose that Freddie would have the call in the betting in his own country, but he was also favorite over Ritchie, both in New York and right in Willie's home town, San Francisco.

The wheels of progress here seem to be running very smoothly for the promoters of the big bout, as well as for the two stars. The arena is climbing to the skies without a hitch, and the seat sale goes on as merrily as it started. Starting to promote the match simply for the pur-
