

NOTICES OF
THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN AND THE CULTIVATOR,
 FROM SUBSCRIBERS AND THE PRESS.

As witnessing that the purposes of our Publications are successfully carried out, both to our readers, who have already the evidence of their contents, and to strangers who may on introduction like to look over our Credentials before they take us to their homes as a Family Friend and Counsellor, we subjoin below a few extracts from the Letters of our Correspondents, and the Notices of the Press. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is a large quarto, and forms two volumes of 416 pages each, per year—price $2, in advance. The annual volume of THE CULTIVATOR contains nearly 400 pages, and is furnished at the low price of FIFTY CENTS. Both Journals are amply illustrated, and neatly printed, on fine and durable paper.

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS.

From a gentleman in Massachusetts, distinguished for his scientific attainments, and his practical skill as an agriculturist—"If the hearty approbation of a single reader is of any worth to you, you have mine most heartily, I assure you."

From a subscriber in Western New York—"I think the Country Gentleman the BEST PAPER for farmers I have yet seen."

From a subscriber in Ohio—"I think the Country Gentleman decidedly the best Agricultural paper in the country, and I have seen and read many."

From another subscriber in Ohio—"I value the Country Gentleman as the BEST OF SIXTEEN Agricultural papers which I take."

From a subscriber in Maine—"I like your paper more and more every day."

From a subscriber in Illinois—"I prefer the Country Gentleman to any of the Agricultural papers I am acquainted with."

From a subscriber in Connecticut—"It is perhaps unnecessary for me to say how much I have been pleased and instructed in reading the Country Gentleman."

From a gentleman in Vt., distinguished both as a writer and an Agriculturist—"The Country Gentleman is, BY FAR, at the head of the Agricultural Journals of the United States."

From a subscriber in Michigan—"I cannot get along without it—in fact, it is the best paper I ever read."

From a subscriber in Kentucky—"Of all the papers I have ever read, there is none in comparison to the Country Gentleman—you need not ask me for what, for it is FOR EVERY THING."

From a subscriber at Concord, Mass.—"Your paper is indubitably the best paper in the country."

A subscriber at Pittsburgh, Pa., speaks of the Country Gentleman as "the leading periodical of the country, useful and practical."

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Wayne County Whig—"We are acquainted with no paper which better justifies the use of an elegant and appropriate title than THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. It is not only a model of typographical taste, but it is filled with well written and valuable articles, on every topic of interest to the practical agriculturist, whether of acres or of rods. It is a paper of which Mr. Tucker, the veteran and pioneer of agricultural publications in New-York, may be justly proud. We commend it with the greatest cordiality, to the attention of our readers."

Jacksonian, Pontiac, Mich.—"It has never fallen to our lot to meet with a more interesting and readable paper of the kind than The Country Gentleman. Taking into consideration the great amount of reading matter in its columns, and the fact of its issuing weekly, it is the cheapest paper devoted to the same subject in the world, and we wish it God-speed with a hearty good will."

Vermont Chronicle, Windsor, Vt.—"Its patrons may rely on the Conductor's ability and enterprise, judgment and taste, and purity of moral sentiment. It is a beautiful and every way excellent paper, and we cannot doubt its success."

Ohio Cultivator, Columbus, Ohio—"Mr. Tucker is the most experienced and successful publisher of agricultural papers in the Union, having been nearly a quarter of a century in the business."

The Hudson Gazette pronounces it "decidedly the best agricultural publication in the country."

The Winsted Herald says—"On all matters pertaining to the occupation of the Farmer and the Horticulturist, as well as to Domestic Architecture and the Country Fire side, it is without a rival."

The Herald and Free Press, Norristown, Pa., says of The Cultivator, that it is "well known as among the best works of the kind in the country."
