An Irishman was engaged in working on a road with two Englishmen. One day the Irishman had his coat off. The Englishmen thought they would play a joke on him. They painted a donkey's head on the back of Mike's coat and waited patiently to see him put it on. Mike, saw the donkey's head on his coat, and, turning to his fellow-workmen, said, "Which of ye wiped your face on my coat?"—Philadelphia Record.
