THE WRATH OF THE GODS, LYRIC MONDAY

Famous Feature That Created a Star When Shown at Strand, New York—Second Mutual Master Picture

Following the policy inaugurated at the Lyric Theatre last Monday the second of the Mutual Masterpictures will be presented the first three days of next week. Productions which combine a powerful fascinating story with superb spectacular effects are still among the rare jewels in filmdom.

Not the least sparkling of these gems is "The Wrath of the Gods," another big photo-play to be shown Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday which was produced by the same great director as "On the Night Stage," Mr. Theo. Ince. In "The Wrath of the Gods" the camera follows the path of destruction at close range, and one sees portrayed with equal and astonishing skill, the majesty of the angry sea, the sublime wrath of fire, and the fearful quaking of the very earth itself.

Wonderful realism characterizes the screen depiction of the floods of fire, gradual gathering of the force of the storm, the final bursting of the sky and lava descending in never ending torrents from the angry crater of the Sakurajima.

The scene where the earth yawns and engulfs men and women and houses in one huge grave is indeed one of the most novel and terrifying ever pictured.

As for the story, it is one worthy of the direction of the play, it is told in six acts and is enacted with that force and skill that denote the real artist. Over one thousand persons are in the cast. The vaudeville offerings will be "The Gagnoux" in spectacular juggling feats. Those who witnessed last week's feature should by all means make every effort to see "The Wrath of the Gods." Same price scale. Matinee daily. First evening performance, 7.10.

Contributions to the Patriotic Fund acknowledged today included $5 from Edward Ambrose of New York, and $24.40 from the people of Hatfield's Point, collected by Miss Gladys Morrell.

If you can save money why not do so today now at the People's Dry Goods store, 14 Charlotte street. Big sale now in full swing.

Matinee today at the Opera House, with Jere, the Honan Musical Revue, the Honan Male Quartette, "O'Reilly at the Cabaret" and the cabaret girls. The same programme will be repeated tonight for the last time. The company makes an entire change of programme on Monday night.

Commencing today, Saturday, at 1.30, bookboards will leave Kane's corner every half hour for Centuries. Last trip at half-past four. Fare 10c, each way.

We carry a full line of flashlight supplies. John Jones Electric Co., 5 Colburn street. 8-2

Next week, Jere McAllister and the Honan Musical Revue will give a matinee every day at the Opera House, except on Monday.

Nevertheless, the Flemming modus operandi, as exemplified in the case of the notorious Timberland steal, seems to have been closely followed.

Don't hesitate a minute, come to the People's Dry Goods sale at 14 Charlotte street.

OPEN TONIGHT. The furniture establishment of Amund Bros., Waterloo street, will be open until ten o'clock tonight, and this will give everyone a chance to take advantage of their August furniture sale, as their entire stock has been marked down from regular prices. "MEET ME AT THE ONONETTE PATRIOTIC FAIR"

Big Event For Next Saturday—All The Features, Including a Pike

"All aboard for Ononette!" That will be the general cry on Saturday next, August 7, when the Ononette Patriotic Fair will be in progress on the beautiful grounds of Mrs. O. H. Warwick at that popular summer resort. It will be the biggest event of the week-end.

The fair, besides being novel and attractive in suggestion and execution, will be a most interesting and profitable one. It will be complete without a visit to the grounds, where from three to ten acres of land, the various features are made for yachts. Three regular trains will carry people to Ononette during the afternoon, and a special is now being arranged for, while the same number will be used in returning to the city.

St. Mary's Band of thirty pieces will be on hand during the afternoon and evening and will play an elaborate programme of concert selections. A five o'clock tea will be served, and a booth will be erected for the sale of ice cream, soft drinks, peanuts, candies and other necessities, while some sixty delicious, delicious, home-made pies will be offered at auction.

The "pike" will be attractive and interesting. It will contain many bright fixtures, including games, doll racks, candy wheels, fortune teller booths, the African dodger, lamp-chimney racks, beer-bottle racks, and other features of varied and amusing nature. An especially attractive part of the day's programme will be a tug-of-war between teams from Ononette and Hillside.

The proceeds are to be devoted to the Patriotic, Red Cross and Soldiers' Comfort Association funds, and because of this, as well as because of the pleasure to be derived at an affair so projected, in so pretty a country centre as Ononette, the patronage should be large and generous. From present indications it might be said that the words on the lips of patriotic people next week will be "Meet me at the Ononette Patriotic Fair."

Another $100 was received by Mayor Frink this morning for the machine gun fund. The donor is William Brédie.

PAID $175 AVERAGE AND RECEIVED $227.50

Last Night in the Horse Purchase Inquiry

Charlottetown, P. E. I. July 31.—At last night's session of the Davidson commission in Summerside, Emmerson Heustis, accountant of the Bank of Nova Scotia, produced records of checks delivered to MacNeill, livery man, to the end of the year. MacNeill again took the stand and gave names of farmers from whom he had purchased ten horses unaccounted for at the afternoon session. The prices ranged from $170 to $225. On an average the price he paid for the eighty-one was $175, and the price received from the government averaged $227.50. He corroborated evidence of Doctor Doyle to the effect that the latter came to Summerside alone the first time and that on the second visit Major Anderson accompanied him. MacNeill also produced a letter received from the department on August 14th stating that some horses were wanted at once. Doyle and Anderson were together when the first horses were bought. The former inspected them and the latter fixed the price. MacNeill was paid $2200 for the first sixteen, including $1425 for the first six. Each animal was charged for separately. He would not account for the fact that the second ten averaged as much as the first six. He was not assigned by any one that he was to get a flat rate. After he had sent sixteen he wired to Moncton that he had forty-seven on hand. He shipped over what he believed to be fifty four. On arrival there turned out to be fifty-five. This was probably due to the fact that some were sent over by express. They paid the price he asked for the fifty-four, namely $12,154. He gave them a list of prices for each separately.

MacNeill was still on the stand when the commission adjourned till 11 a.m. morning.

It has been decided to call several farmers tomorrow to see if their recollections tally with that of MacNeill. Some eleven horses had been unaccounted for but they have all been now.
