MR. HAZEN'S OPPORTUNITY

Earl Grey continues to place Canadians under an obligation. A flood of immigration literature would not produce the effect in England that will be produced by the statement by His Excellency of which a summary is given in today's special cable from London to the Times-Star.

This is not the statement of an immigration society, a company of promoters, a provincial or even the federal government. It is the matured opinion of a keen-eyed observer from England, who has sat at our table, conferred with our statesmen, visited our fields and factories, and our schools and institutions, estimated our potential wealth, studied our character, and summoned up his conclusions in sentences that are almost extravagant in their praise of Canada.

The statements of Earl Grey will appeal like to the prospective emigrant and investor. They will create a feeling of confidence in things Canadian, and a desire to share in the wonderful development of this country. They will add force to the efforts being made to attract desirable settlers and men with capital to Canada. There never was a time when the opportunity was so favorable to attract attention in England to the advantages possessed by the province of New Brunswick. What is the Hazen government doing about it?

There are thirteen supervised summer playgrounds in Detroit. They provide supervised athletic sports, swings, see-saws, flying rings, trapezes, parallel and horizontal bars, climbing poles, and piles, sewing and basketry with materials supplied with out charge; shower baths with soap and towels at seven schools; and swimming lessons at three schools.

SWIMMING AND BATHS

Complaint is made that boys and young men use the south end slips for swimming purposes, and that they do not trouble themselves either to get bathing suits or wear even an air of modesty as they swim around the wharves. This is a matter for the police.

It is a fact, however, that St. John does not provide facilities for bathing, although a public bath-house could be provided at comparatively small expense. A copy of the Detroit Times just received tells of the swimming pools in the Clara public bath-house, one of two that are provided in that city. It is named after a former St. John lady, Mrs. Clara Arthur, who was instrumental in having public baths introduced in Detroit. Two pools are provided, one for the men and boys, and one for the women and girls. They are 44 feet long by 17½ feet wide, 3½ feet at the greatest depth, and 3 feet at the shallowest. Men are taxed five cents, with soap and towels thrown in; women and children one cent, with free towel, and an extra penny for a cake of soap, with the privilege of bringing their own soap if they prefer. There is a superintendent in charge of the institution, and the Women's Club raise money to pay the salary of a young woman as swimming instructor for the women and girls. She has had 200 under instruction thus far this season. On one day recently the two pools were used by 1870 persons, and hundreds were turned away. There is an agitation in Detroit in favor of more such bath houses. In St. John there should be little difficulty in providing at least the men and boys with bathing facilities, that the complaint referred to at the timing of this article would not be made. Until such provision is made the decadence of life must be guarded by the police.

Despatches to the morning papers give a pathetic picture of Jeffries leaving Reno with a bruised body and a broken heart. Unhappy man! He is worth only about a quarter of a million, and his ring career is ended. Once he was content to be an humble boiler-maker; but that was before he made the acquaintance of Jerry the cricket, Gunshot Grogan, Water Tank Kinzel, Smiling Harry, Kid Bullets, Side Wheeler Sweeney and other celebrities. It was also in the days before he opened his gorgeous gin-palace in a California city, or purchased his great ranch in that state. This weary Titan now staggers away from Reno with a sore burden of additional wealth, and the sad eye of a sympathetic world weeps at his passing.

This prize fight affords one other moving picture. It is that of Johnson's mother. After having been carried on the ladders of admiring friends from her humble, this "mother of a real hero" generously responded to the appeal of thousands that she show herself to them. Here is the picture:—

"She went up to the second floor, and carrying a life-sized poster picture of her son Jack, stepped out onto the roof of the front porch. Waving the picture in one hand and a bunch of flowers in the other, she began the song: 'There'll be a Hot Time in The Old Town Tonight.' The immense crowd joined in. The woman stood waving the picture and flowers and sang so loud that hoarseness robbed her of her voice, so she just stood and cried. The tears streamed down her face and half the crowd were crying with her. Ring down the curtain."

The gate receipts at the Reno prize fight were $270,775. That beats a whole season of camp-meetings.

There should be no further delay in settling this matter of the transfer of the west side lots.

The death of a boy, Robert Wharf, will await a fence to protect the public. The grand jury has forcibly directed the attention of the city council to its duty in the matter.

Moncton city council has declared in favor of permanent street paving for that city. If the policy is faithfully carried out, Moncton in ten years will be the envy of less progressive towns.

The cause of woman suffrage is making progress in Canada. The National Council of Women, which formerly taboored the subject, has adopted by a large majority a resolution favoring votes for women.

This is the last week of the provincial election campaign in Manitoba. The government had 28 seats to 13 for the opposition in the last house. The present fight is one of the most bitterly contested for many years.

The Standard this morning published a London cable stating that Cosgrave, the Canadian, had been with Edye of London, to row in the preliminaries at Henley, and was picked to win the Diamond Sculls. The Times-Star, two days ago, in its special cable, announced the defeat of Cosgrave by Edye. It pays to read the paper that gives the news.

They provide supervised athletic sports, swings, see-saws, flying rings, trapezes, parallel and horizontal bars, climbing poles, and piles, sewing and basketry with materials supplied with out charge; shower baths with soap and towels at seven schools; and swimming lessons at three schools.

The National Council of Women, in session at Halifax, passed the following resolution:—"Whereas it frequently occurs that great hardship and serious privation befalls the innocent wives and children of men undergoing long terms of imprisonment;—Be it resolved, that the Government be asked to provide that the earnings of prisoners be applied to the support of their wives and children."

There is a builders' strike in Montreal and the leading contractors decided last night to stand together and resist the demands of the men. The men are resolved to insist upon having their demands met. The Montreal Herald truly says of the situation:—"The danger is that the parties to the controversy will see only their own difficulties, and will not see clearly enough in advance what will be all the consequences of their resolves."

The Binghamton, N. Y., Chamber of Commerce has a bureau for the encouragement of wider cultivation, and for the settlement of unoccupied farms. The belief is entertained that if farming can be made to pay the young men will be drawn into the business. As it is not there is a tendency to look elsewhere for work. The same conditions exist in New Brunswick. It has been suggested that the board of trade here interest itself in this very question.

Canadians were surprised a few days ago to learn that London was excited over a great gold find in British Columbia. They had not heard of the discovery. Now comes the Victoria Colonist with these remarks:—"We do not know who is responsible for the extraordinary tales that have been sent to London concerning the reported gold discovery in the vicinity of Stewart, but it is a great pity that such exaggerated ideas are abroad. Presumably the first news received was telegraphed to the London papers, but it cannot have been the original story that has caused so much excitement, for that was given out simply as a report and not alleged to be a fact. Moreover that

"What! Don't you know your mind?" I cried.

She said: "It's warm the day."

I asked her: "Will you be my bride?"

She said: "I couldn't say."

"Come, lassie, shall it be this spring?" She cried: "You're vera free."

"Then, tell me, may I buy the ring?"

"Man! Please yourself," says she.

At Camp Sussex

The camp at Sussex will disband on Saturday. Yesterday General Otter made an inspection of the camp and a number of the headquarters staff officers paid a visit. The members of the signaling corps had a busy time yesterday with manoeuvres, inspection and drill. Col. Foster has completed his inspection of the medical matters in connection with the encampment and has found everything satisfactory.

was several weeks ago and since then the actual facts of the case have been made known. Private letters from experienced prospectors say that while gold-bearing quartz has been found the discovery has not yet been shown to be especially important."

The following from a Toronto paper tells a story of rapid growth in the Queen City:—"While many large cities on the continent are reporting a decline in building activity this year, Toronto is enjoying a building boom. During the first six months of the year the city architect's department has issued permits for 3,032 new buildings of the approximate value of $2,840,648, an increase of $1,011,273 in value over the corresponding six months of last year. During the same period 4,290 new buildings have been erected, exceeding by 726 the number erected in the same period last year. During last month permits for 1,300 new buildings of the value of $2,302,550 were issued, as against permits for 880 buildings of the value of $2,001,545 in June last year."

MY GOODS

My all I carry with me everywhere.

The presence of the Lord on land and sea.

The love of dear ones close enfolding me—

My patrimony, these, and these, I bear

For pictures, eyes to which the world is fair.

For book, the nearest thing, whatever it be.

For gold, the mind that scorns its sovereignty.

For bed of ease, a soul God-freedom from care.

For work, I have the task that near me lies.

For tools, I have my hands, my tongue, my brain;

For comrades in my toil, the trees, the skies.

And wide Eternity is my domain!

I'll not exchange the very least of these.

For all the wealth in all the lands and seas.

HISTORIC.

Wife—Dear, it isn't possible that you are intoxicated. But you look like it.

Hubby—M' dear, you certainly compliment my power of action.—Cleveland Leader.

AS TO PROGRESS.

"My girl is very thoughtful."

"As to how?"

"Whenever she's dressing to go anywhere, and I'm waiting below, she always issues half-hourly bulletins."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

POOR MEMORY.

"She made a horrible break at Green's dinner party the other night."

"What was it?"

"Called the hostess by her first husband's name."—Detroit Free Press.

HE DIDN'T KNOW HER.

The telephone call of a suite of apartments in a ladies' boarding house is 100.

One young lady, a recent comers, answered the call, and was astonished to hear a man's voice inquire hurriedly: "Is this one nine six?"

What she could catch her breath the lady, who was a very proper young lady indeed, replied: "I think not. Were we ever introduced?"—Bryn Mawr.

HIS MISTAKE.

Edward—What do you think I carry in my watch case, darling? It is always the stamp of your last letter. Your lips have touched it, and mine often kiss the place where yours have been.

Angeline—Oh, Edward! I'm awfully sorry, but I always use Fie's damp nose!—Illustrated Bits.

BOTH BUSY.

"We were sweethearts once. I have always intended to marry that girl."

"And why haven't you?"

"Well, so far, we have never happened to be unmarried simultaneously."—Kansas City Journal.

TRUTH IN A NUTSHELL.

"Move inside, gentle," cried the conductor on the crowded trolley. "You're breaking the rules standin' on the platform here."

"Some o' them ain't," piped up a little man. "They're standin' on my feet."

GOOD FISHING.

K. M. Wharry was telling some friends about a proposed fishing trip to a lake in Colorado which he had in contemplation.

"Are there any trout out there?" asked one friend.

"Thousands of 'em," replied Mr. Wharry.

"Will they bite easily?" asked another friend.

"Will they?" said Mr. Wharry. "Why they're absolutely vicious. A man has to hide behind a tree to bait a hook."—Denver Post.

CALEDONIAN CAUTION.

My Flora is a canny Scot—

Too canny, truth to tell—

For though I'd have her share my lot,

She'd no commit herself!

I said: "Will you my sweetheart be?"

She answered: "Hoots! You men!"

I pressed her: "Do you care for me?"

She said: "I dinna care."

"What! Don't you know your mind?" I cried.

She said: "It's warm the day."

I asked her: "Will you be my bride?"

She said: "I couldn't say."

"Come, lassie, shall it be this spring?" She cried: "You're vera free."

"Then, tell me, may I buy the ring?"

Montreal Statistics Show 75,000 Dwellings—Some Interesting Figures

(Montreal Gazette).

According to the Municipal Gazette, the number of dwellings in Montreal is 75,122. It is further shown in the statement, which is an abstract of the property assessment rolls for last year, that the highest rental paid is $4,000 a year, which is credited to but one dwelling. There are three others which collect a rental of $3,000, eleven having a rental of $2,500, and the same number a rental of $2,000. Twenty dwellings have a rental of $1,500, and eighty a rental of $1,000. From this figure the rentals decrease to one hundred dollars a year and even less.

As regards the homes of the workingmen the information is equally interesting. For a rental of $150 a year there are 3,060 dwellings, for a rental of $100 a year the dwellings are 3,709; for a rental of $50 a year the dwellings are 5,722; and for a rental of $100 a year the dwellings number 7,406, which is the highest number in the list. For a rental of $80 a year the number of dwellings is 6,076; and for a rental of $60 a year the dwellings number 6,170. Rentals of $40 a year have 4,980 dwellings, and of $30 a year there are 2,446 dwellings.

Curiously enough, there is one dwelling, which must be a shack, which is reported to be worth a rental of but $10 a year, and there are two other shacks valued at $20 a year. Both these habitations are situated in Delorimer ward.

Most of the high priced dwellings, including the one of $4,000 a year, are in St. George's ward, though St. Andrew's ward also has several of high rentals.

For the cheaper houses, for example, Papineau ward has one thousand dwellings worth $100 a year in rentals; and St. Ann's ward has one-half that number and another, thou-
