ARDENT WOOER JAILED.
Writer of Impassioned Letters Given Six Months.

Toronto, Feb. 1.—An atmosphere of money cloyed the criminal assize court today, when a series of letters alleged to have been written by Alexander Calder to Miss Greta McGill of Indian Grove were read to the jury.

Declaring an impassioned devotion to Miss McGill and being refused permission to visit at her home, he repeatedly proceeded to bombard her with epistolary declarations of undying love, certain of the products of his pen being of such a character that he now faces a charge of using his majesty's mails for the transmission of scandalous literature.

Besides being an industrious and perverted letter writer Calder would appear to be an accountant, for in some of the letter exhibits he allegedly avers that he had at that date kissed Miss McGill 316 times, and that she had reciprocated on 159 occasions, leaving a debit balance of 159 osculations as against the lady. The documentary evidence is, however, disputed for, in the witness box, Miss McGill challenged the accuracy of the score.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES

The Symmes Arlington Hospital, Arlington, Mass. Spring Term opens February 1st. Applications must be from 18 to 35 years of age, of good health and must have the equivalent of a high school education. Course 2 years 6 months. Medical, Surgical and Obstetrics. Salary $10 per month after 2 months probation. Beautiful new home for Nurses. For application blanks address Miss Nora A. Brown, Supt. at Hospital.

"He speaks of your returning his kisses," counsel remarked, "is that true?"

"Once," was the shy response. "Didn't he kiss you every meal time?" interposed Gideon Grant, in the accused's behalf.

"No, not always," conscientiously declared the witness. "It was usually at suppers."

The reticence of Calder's memory would seem to be supported by the statement in another of his letters that it was then a year since he had kissed the attractive girl, but I can still taste her soft, warm lips, he is said to have added.

The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, and sentence of six months' imprisonment was imposed.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL EXECUTIVE.
A special meeting of the executive of the St. John local council of women was held in the King's Daughters' Guild on Saturday afternoon with the president, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith in the chair. The powers which pertain to the council of the standing committees were clearly outlined and three conveners were asked to prepare reports for presentation at the next meeting. Other business had to do with the purchase of a building in St. John which will be suitable for all the women's organizations to hold their meetings in and also serve as a thank memorial for the cessation of hostilities and as a memorial of the brave sons of Canada who gave their lives for the cause of liberty and justice. The committee appointed to make investigations with regard to such a building and to submit reports was named as follows: Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, Mrs. John F. Bullock, Mrs. H. A. Powell, Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond.
