Troubled With Weak Back and Kidneys For 10 Years.

Many people fail to understand the significance of a lame, weak, sore or aching back.

When the back aches or becomes weak it is a warning that the kidneys are affected in some way.

Take notice to the warning and cure the backache on the first sign, for if you don't do this, serious complications are sure to arise and perhaps develop into Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease, the three most deadly forms of kidney trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills will strengthen the weak back, and prevent any form of kidney trouble entering the system.

Mrs. Ed. Boyer, Nokomis, Sask., writes: "I have been troubled with weak back and kidneys. I had terrible dizzy headaches, and could not sleep at night. In this way I suffered for ten years until I read about Doan's Kidney Pills. I purchased two boxes, and as they helped me, I sent for two more; they put me on my feet, and I have been able to work ever since."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents a box, or 3 boxes for $1.50, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Ordering direct specify "Doan's."

likely to receive much consideration from the Welsh members of the House of Commons, their Liberal supporters, both non-conformist and churchmen, and above all the Irish Nationalists, who voted regularly for the bill, perhaps not much because they liked its principles as because of a desire to get it out of the way to give a clear road for the new bill.

While home rule has attracted more attention, on account of the opposition of a portion of Ulster, the Welsh church bill has created almost as much feeling between the two political parties, and between the Church of England and the Liberals. The Welsh Liberals—and with one or two exceptions all members of the House of Commons from the principality are Liberals—were busy early in the year urging the passage of the bill, and supporting candidates in constituencies throughout the kingdom pledged to vote for it. The bishops and their supporters were just as busy. In every by-election, organizations opposed to disestablishment entered the constituency to fight candidates who favored the bill, and Liberal churchmen were particularly urged to go against their party on this measure. All this has counted heavily against the government and several by-elections have been influenced by it. Mr. Asquith has, however, gone steadily forward, endeavoring to carry out the pledges he gave the Welshmen twenty years ago to disestablish the church when it was in his power to do so.

Now that the disestablishment bill has been passed it is believed that all the old animosities aroused by it will be forgotten. The government at any rate has taken the first step toward that happy conclusion by appointing a non-partisan commission to carry out the provisions of the bill. This commission is composed of Sir Henry Primrose, a civil servant of long and distinguished service, who is a member of the Episcopal Church of Scotland; Sir William Pender, a clerical accountant, member of the Church of England, and Sir Herbert Roberts, a Welsh non-conformist member of the House of Commons.

The functions of the commission will be to determine the allocation of the property of the church, and to determine what is to be done with the churches and church buildings, including residences of the clergy, plate and furniture, all funds and endowments specially allocated to the repair, restoration, or improvement of churches or ecclesiastical residences, all closed burial grounds and private benefactions made since 1802 retained vested in the church.

What the church loses are the burial grounds and glebes and church charges, which go to the county and borough councils, and which produce the greater part of the amount mentioned in the bill. The money will be devoted to health and educational purposes.

While strongly opposed to disestablishment, the Church party attack more subtly the disestablishment proposals, which they say will cripple the Church in Wales. In Cardiff, for example, it is estimated that the present income of 514,000, one subscription, only $3,000 will be left.

Lord Mersey left London on Saturday for Canada to take his place on the board to inquire into the Empress of Ireland disaster.

The schooner Kolan foundered on Friday during a heavy gale off Sambro Ledges, N. S., and the captain and crew were brought to Halifax yesterday on the schooner Romance. The Kolan was from the Magdalenes, with fish for Machias, Me.

The handsome home of Alexander Gibson at Marysville, N. B., was destroyed by fire on Saturday at a loss of about $5,000.

Fully ten thousand people attended the funeral service held in Toronto yesterday for the seventeen Salvation Army victims of the Empress disaster, conducted by Commissioner Thos. McKie, of London, England. More than 150,000 persons lined the route of the funeral procession.

Surfing yesterday invaded the Catholic churches in London. In Westminster Cathedral a woman interrupted Father Bernard Vaughan in his sermon by shouting an appeal against the suffragettes. She was removed by the usher. In the Church of the Oratory several women were removed after interrupting the mass by singing "God Save Emmeline Pankhurst."

A big banking house suspended business on Saturday, Chaplin, Milne, Grenfell & Co, going to the wall with liabilities of $25,000,000. The head of the defunct institution was a son-in-law of Harry Grey. Speculation by one of the partners is given as the cause of the failure.

The Allan Line Corinthian, from Montreal for London, collided with the little steamer Oriole, on the Thames, England, on Saturday, and sank her.

Henry J. Matthews, of New York, was arrested in Toronto on Saturday after having tendered the clerk of a hotel a five dollar bill which was found to be one of $278,000 stolen in 1911 from the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster, B. C. Notes of the Montreal bank amounting to $8,000 were found in his possession.

A good way to use up coal dust is to save all paper bags, fill them with the dust, and when the fire requires mending place a bag of coal on top. This plan is much cleaner than putting on the dust in shovelfuls, as it cakes, and so does not tumble through the bars of the grate on to the hearth.
