

medical man of whom any record is preserved who practised his profession in St. John. His services were doubtless acceptable to the inhabitants as well as to the garrison. Among the accounts kept by James White as Indian Agent on the St. John River, occur the following items :

"P'd Dr. Sharman inoculating self and family, £9 0 0."

"P'd Dr. Sharman for medicine and attendance to Pierre Thomas and four other sick Indians, £5 16 8."

Soon after the peace Dr. Sharman moved up the river to Burton and settled near his friend and comrade in arms, Samuel Denny Street. He was practising there in 1791, and among his patrons was Col. Abraham DePeyster, then Sheriff of Sunbury. The following is a medical bill of that day ; in it attendance and medicines are mixed :
