gave evidence of the resolution of extensive and dangerous ulceration. The disease did its work rapidly, and on Monday morning, May 7th, he passed peacefully into his rest. A few hours before his departure, in reply to the question from the writer as to his prospects for the future world, he calmly and confidently replied, "Christ is my refuge," and a little later, to a similar enquiry, he exclaimed, "All is well!"

As a preacher he was lucid, earnest and eminently practical — as a friend, confiding; and as a husband and father considerate, loving and indulgent. He has passed away from our ranks in the 55th year of his age, leaving a wife and two daughters to lament his loss, and many sons and daughters in the gospel to cherish his memory. Servant of God, well done!

QUES. 9.—How are the Preachers stationed this year?
