

$15 for my wife and $8 for my mother.

"At my mother's death, I order that her proportion * * be divided * * " between five nieces, and that "on my wife's death, her proportion * * be divided" between nephews and nieces.

"All the residue of my estate not hereinbefore disposed of, I give, devise, and bequeath unto my wife":—

Held, that the bequests to the Archbishop and Bishop named in the will being essentially different from their names in their corporate capacity, were intended for them individually, subject to the trust declared, the purpose of which was a charitable use, and that the money being derived from the sale of land, the legacies failed, and the amount went to augment the residuary gift of the particular land out of which it was directed to be paid, and not the general residue of the estate.

As the land was directed to be sold within three years from the testator's death, the legacies bore interest from the date when the lands should have been sold.

That as there was no special devise of the real estate, but only a direction to the executors to sell and pay legacies, the land and rents arising therefrom belonged to the widow, under the general residuary gift to her, and that the executor had no power to lease.

That the widow was not bound to elect between her dower and the will.

Costs ordered to be paid out of the real estate, as the litigation had related to it. McMylor v. Lynch et al., 632.
