THE PEACE TERMS.

The clause in the peace terms which appears most objectionable is that which permits the teaching of the Dutch language in the schools, Eng-ish will be the language of commerc and if the Boers are to become progre sive they must learn that tongue. Why urden their children with one that is not spoken in any other portion of th empire to which they now belong? To rpetuate the Boer language, which. after all, is not pure Dutch, is to creat a barrier between those people and their English speaking neighbors, and to afford race prejudice an excellent strong hold. There should be only one lan suage in South Africa.

With respect to the large money gran and other privileges accorded the Boers judgment may fairly be suspended it is learned what the condition of the loyal citizens will be, and what ompensation will be offered them. The governor of Cape Colony seems to be with the terms affecting that colony, but whether he speaks for the people or not remains to be seen It is to be hoped that the Boers will accept the generosity of their conquer ors in a proper spirit, though there is room for doubt on that point.

The generosity of the British govern ment appears to have effectively shu off foreign criticism, and there really appears to be some cause for the re nark of that stalwart London patrio who said yesterday:

"Peace with honor. It seems to me ve've got all the peace and the Boers have all the honor." Let us hope that no mistake has been ade, and that the future will justify the course pursued. It is certainly a great thing to have the war ended, and

we a larger conception of their duty ers to the public than prevails in St. John. The May grand jury, before they were discharged in the qounty court of Brooklyn last week, delivered a pre sentment to the judge which was not only long but comprehensive. They in formed his honor that after a thorough investigation by individual mem bers of the jury they had discovered many evils. They found the excis openly and flagrantly violated, and liquor sold on Sundays and during prohibited hours. Dance halls and ert halls were found to be carried on in open violation of law. A portion of the street in the shopping district on Fulton street was infested in the evening by women of bad character. The testimony of two police officers was so palpably at variance with facts that their dismissal was recommended. There was an objectionable and unecessary crowding of inmates of th alms house at the mess table, and the building was found to be leaky and in urgent need of repairs. One of the streets was found to be in a disgraceful condition and should be repaired at once. The men's jail was found to be in good condition, and the grand jury rejoiced to learn that the women's jail, which had been condemned as disgraceful by former grand juries, was to be abandoned for new and fitting quarters.

It will be observed that this grand jury did not confine itself to matters ordinarily brought before the court, but acted the part of a genuine investigating committee, charged with an important public duty. The judge, se charge had recommend tion of the enquiry made, thanked them for their labors and commended their report to the attention of the responsible authorities. Lest anyone should assume, however, that a wave of sudden and startling reform will sweep over Coney Island and that region, it may be observed that when Brooklyn Eagle reporter submitted a copy of the presentment to the district attorney and police commissioner those officials had nothing to say, further than that if an investigation concerning matters affecting their departmen should be deemed necessary it would certainly be held. If a St. John grand jury were to resolve itself into a committee of investigation, and its members go quietly about with their eyes open, they would doubtless find cause for an interesting presentment. They might possibly recommend that when a limited num ber of prisoners have been put in jall, filling it to its ordinary healthy capacity, all other evil doers be simply turned loose on the community again, until the city felt called upon to pro-vide sufficient jail accommodation to keep them in such manner as would

President Roosevelt talked very plain ly to the American people in his Decoration Day address last Friday, in reference to harsh criticism of the army in the Philippines. One para graph of his speech will not be read with unmixed pleasure in the south, out it goes straight to the mark. The president said:

but it goes straight to the mark. The president said: "From time to time there occur in our country, to the deep and lasting shame of our people, lynchings, car-ried on under circumstances of inhu-man cruelty and barbarity-ac cruelty infinitely worse than any that has ever been committed by our tropps in the Philippines; worse to the victims, and far more brutalizing to those guilty of it. The men who fail to con-demn these lynchings, and yet clamor about what has been done in the Phil-ippines, are indeed guilty of neglect-ing the beam in their own eye while taunting their brother about the mote in his. Understand me. These lynch-ings afford us no excuse for failure to stop crueity in the Philippines. Every effort is being made, and will be made, to minimize the chances of cruelty oc-curring." curring.

Mr. Patrick Gleeson, whose death courred this morning, was a fine example of a man who fulfilled his duties as a citizen without prejudice, and re tained the respect of his fellows in all walks of life. A representative Roman Catholic, he was on terms of the closes friendship with those of other faith. A life-long abstainer, he labored to promote temperance. It was not in his nature to be unkind, and he leaves behind him only kindly memories

God send lasting amity. We have admired your personal bravery and humanity on the field."

Earl Roberts said: "The country ought to be grateful to Lord Kitchener and to the army for what they have achie-yed. When Lord Kitchener assumed ved. When Lord Kitchener assumed command things were in a critical state and he has accomplished what no other man could have done."

SATISFY THE MODERATES. LONDON, June 3.—Judging from the opinions thus far given out by public men and from the editorial articles in the London newspapers, the terms of peace appear to meet with approval from all sides.

KRUGER IS DUMB.

KRUGER 18 DUMB. AMSTERDAM, Juno 2.-Since the news was received here that pence had been con-cluded in South Africa. Mr. Kruger has de-tain on the subject. The other Boer dele-tion will gain nothing "from this unjust war" and that her difficulties in South Af-rica are now beginning. The papers generally express admiration for the courage of the Boers, and regret that their sacrifices have proved to be in valo.

THE PRELIMINARY CONFERENCE LONDON, June 2.—A parliamentary paper issued this evening gives the correspondence preceding the peace agreement. From this it appears that General Schalk-Burger, acting presi-dent of the Transvaal, informed Lord Kitchener March 13 that he was pre-pared to make peace proposals. A month later the Boer delegates sub-mitted propositions. On April 13, the war secretary, Mr. Brodrick, refused to entertain any propositions based on the independence of the republics, Sub-sequently President Steyn of the Or-ange Free State, and Generals Schalk-Burger and Botha declared that the surmender of independence must be submitted to the burghers in the field. THE PRELIMINARY CONFERENCE prise at this attitude, but announced lis willingness to accept the Boers' surrender on the same terms that Lord Kitchener had previously offered Gen. Botha and to give facilities for a con-sultation of the Boer commands. On May 17, Gen. Schalk-Burger and Mr. Steyn informed Lord Kitchener that the burghers assembled at Vereenig-ing had empowered a commission to negotiate peace terms subject to rati-fication at Vereeniging. Lord Milner, Lord Kitchener and the Boer commis-sion met May 19th. The latter offered to surrender the independence of the republics as regards foreign relations; to surrender part of their territory and retain self-government under Brit-ish supervision. These proposals were forthwith rejected. The same day Lord Milner, Gen. Smuts and Judge Hertzog drew up a form of agreement, to be submitted to the conference at Vereeniging for a yes or no vote. This was very similar to the final agree-ment, and, with few alterations, was approved by Mr. Chamberlain, who, in giving notice of his approval, told Lord Milner he must inform the Boers way used be considered ended and his Majesty's government would not be bound in any way by the present de-clarations. The Boers asked to be al-lowed until Saturday night to give an answer, and the result was seen in the termination of the war. The last message of Lord Milner to Mr. Cham-berlain, June 1, after the signature of the peace agreement, mentions that Mr. Steyn's name was omitted from the signatures because he was too ill to come up to Pretoria, adding that he had already taken his parole. the termination of the war.
