LIGHTNING PICTURES. Mr. George A. Henderson, city police court clerk, has some excellent pictures of King street, east, and of the sky, showing the lightning the night of Wednesday, 11th. About 11.30 o'clock a night during a very heavy rain, thunder and lightning storm, Mr. Henderson set his camera in the window, made an exposure, and when the lightning flashed it caused such a bright light that an excellent and very distinct picture was taken. The water running on the sidewalk and gutter, etc., is very noticeable and the streaks of lightning in the air are quite plain.
