

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAMME FOR FIRST SESSION OF THE FOURTEENTH PARLIAMENT

Believed There Will Be No Attempt for Any Wholesale Revision of the Tariff—Immigration Question to Demand Special Attention at Forthcoming Session.

(By Alan N. Longstaff, Canadian Press Parliamentary Bureau.)

Ottawa, March 4.—The legislative programme for the government for the first session of the Fourteenth Parliament, which opens on Wednesday, March 8, for the election of a Speaker, with the formal opening and delivery of the Speech from the Throne on the following day, has been under consideration by the cabinet...

Consideration of the Budget proposals and any contemplated changes in taxation has hardly begun as yet. The Budget is not usually brought down for some weeks after the opening, and there has been a multitude of other things to be dealt with before the Finance Minister, Hon. W. S. Fielding and his colleagues, were able to consider taxative changes...

Some changes in the tariff are expected, however, probably affecting many of the items which appear in the average family budget. Premier King has announced himself in favor of a downward revision of taxation on articles of food and clothing which come within the category of necessities of life and also upon the implements and instruments of production in the basic industries of agriculture, mining, fishing and lumbering...

Revision of the Bank Act, which comes every ten years, will be one of the matters before the Select Committee on Banking and Finance, in the event of submission of a bill to the House, it is expected. If the census returns are complete in time, there may also be a redistribution of seats in the House during the next few months or so, and this will undoubtedly bring many changes in the representation, the western provinces gaining seats in the House...

One of the important measures of the session will be that providing for the amalgamation of the Militia, Navy, Air Force and Mounted Police under one Minister of Defence and to carry out this amalgamation already under way and a bill to provide for the change is to be submitted to the House...

At present the government has no definite programme in respect to railways and merchant marine are understood to be under consideration at the present time. When the legislation affecting the National Railways comes before the House, it is expected to carry with it some pronouncement from the Government as to its decision in carrying on the present system. There are opponents of government ownership in the government's own support...

At present the government has no definite programme in respect to railways and merchant marine are understood to be under consideration at the present time. When the legislation affecting the National Railways comes before the House, it is expected to carry with it some pronouncement from the Government as to its decision in carrying on the present system...

At present the government has no definite programme in respect to railways and merchant marine are understood to be under consideration at the present time. When the legislation affecting the National Railways comes before the House, it is expected to carry with it some pronouncement from the Government as to its decision in carrying on the present system...

At present the government has no definite programme in respect to railways and merchant marine are understood to be under consideration at the present time. When the legislation affecting the National Railways comes before the House, it is expected to carry with it some pronouncement from the Government as to its decision in carrying on the present system...

At present the government has no definite programme in respect to railways and merchant marine are understood to be under consideration at the present time. When the legislation affecting the National Railways comes before the House, it is expected to carry with it some pronouncement from the Government as to its decision in carrying on the present system...

At present the government has no definite programme in respect to railways and merchant marine are understood to be under consideration at the present time. When the legislation affecting the National Railways comes before the House, it is expected to carry with it some pronouncement from the Government as to its decision in carrying on the present system...

Entertained By Byng Boys' Club

Banquet and Programme at Manor House in Honor of Ronald A. McAvity's Birthday.

The Byng Boys' Club entertained at dinner, at the Manor House, on Saturday evening, in honor of Ronald A. McAvity, whose birthday fell on that date. The dining hall was elaborately decorated for the occasion...

The speaker took as his text, "And I saw a Holy City" Rev. 21:32. He said it was evident from the Bible records that God has a revelation for the city as well as the individual. The picture of a perfect city was that given by John in the book of Revelations...

The city is described as being founded on twelve foundations. It is built on the twelve apostles which shows that a city can only be great as it is founded on good citizenship. It is composed of twelve gates meaning that the city was a place of universal. Every one could enter it, there were no sectarian barriers...

The twelve fruits of the tree of life were the bearing of the nation which illuminated the path of the city, as well as the moral life by heeding its aches and indignities, and the best way to defend a thing was to defend it by the opposite side course was proven by the defeat when they relied on the policy of defence through the system of their deep dugout.

"I would earn it selling coal," he said. Before Lindsay broached the subject of entering the coal traffic, W. Averill Harriman and Charles H. Sabin had called at the criminal courts building to say that they had never met Lindsay and knew nothing of the "Domino Club," where Lindsay is said to have told women that he met those two financiers and several other bankers and industrial leaders of the country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Able Sermon In Portland Church

Rev. H. B. Clarke Last Evening Took for His Subject, "The City of God."

"The City of God" was the subject of an eloquent sermon delivered in the Portland Street Methodist church last evening, by the pastor, Rev. H. B. Clarke.

The speaker took as his text, "And I saw a Holy City" Rev. 21:32. He said it was evident from the Bible records that God has a revelation for the city as well as the individual. The picture of a perfect city was that given by John in the book of Revelations...

The city is described as being founded on twelve foundations. It is built on the twelve apostles which shows that a city can only be great as it is founded on good citizenship. It is composed of twelve gates meaning that the city was a place of universal. Every one could enter it, there were no sectarian barriers...

The twelve fruits of the tree of life were the bearing of the nation which illuminated the path of the city, as well as the moral life by heeding its aches and indignities, and the best way to defend a thing was to defend it by the opposite side course was proven by the defeat when they relied on the policy of defence through the system of their deep dugout.

"I would earn it selling coal," he said. Before Lindsay broached the subject of entering the coal traffic, W. Averill Harriman and Charles H. Sabin had called at the criminal courts building to say that they had never met Lindsay and knew nothing of the "Domino Club," where Lindsay is said to have told women that he met those two financiers and several other bankers and industrial leaders of the country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Nervous Breakdown

The extreme depression and discouragement which comes over one at times is the most alarming symptom of nervous exhaustion.

This letter is a message of hope to all who find themselves in this unfortunate condition. Mrs. Geo. T. Tingley, Albert, N.B., writes:—"For years I was in a very nervous, run-down condition, was much depressed in spirits and suffered a great deal at times. The least noise would irritate me and at times I felt as though I certainly would go crazy. I consulted different doctors to no effect. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and I can truly testify today to the great benefits received. There was a marked change before I had finished the second box and when I had used a dozen boxes my nerves were thoroughly restored and I was entirely relieved of those terrible feelings I used to have. I shall ever feel it my duty to testify to the benefits of this wonderful medicine, for I feel sure that it will give to others the quick and permanent relief it has given me."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Amazing Proposal Made By Swindler To Repay Losses

Suggests He Be Set Free to Acquire Enough by Selling Coal to Settle.

New York, March 4.—Alfred H. Lindsay, who is alleged to have robbed women of more than $1,000,000, and to have escaped prosecution by paying old victims small sums acquired from new victims, made a formal proposal to the District Attorney's office today to give him freedom so that he could go after more ready money with which to satisfy all the women who had lost through him.

Lindsay said that he was "broke," that his wife was "broke," that he had no profession, but that he had schemes which would enable him, starting with nothing, to acquire in three years enough to settle accounts with the many women who accuse him of robbing them. Lindsay's proposition, which was said by Assistant District Attorney Richard C. Thomas Nagle, returned Saturday afternoon from a business trip to Boston, making a total of five charges of grand larceny pending against him. When Mr. Nagle pressed Lindsay to state course was proven by the defeat when they relied on the policy of defence through the system of their deep dugout.

"I would earn it selling coal," he said. Before Lindsay broached the subject of entering the coal traffic, W. Averill Harriman and Charles H. Sabin had called at the criminal courts building to say that they had never met Lindsay and knew nothing of the "Domino Club," where Lindsay is said to have told women that he met those two financiers and several other bankers and industrial leaders of the country. Mr. Harriman also said that he had never heard of Florence James, at whose card parties Lindsay met a number of women from whom he afterward attempted to get money. Miss James was known to the women who met at her table as a relative of the Harrimans and Vanderbilts. Mr. Harriman said that his father, E. H. Harriman, came of a large family, and that there might be many relatives that he had never heard of.

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Reduce Salaries Of Comedians In London Theatres

Economy in Laughter Regarded as Necessary by Music Hall Managers.

London, March 4.—(By Canadian Press.)—Economy even in laughter is now held to be necessary in this city. Among the managers of the chief music hall circuits a concerted attitude is being made to reduce the salaries of star comedians and also to insist on old jokes being "scrapped."

Many of those who go to music halls and sit through a dreary programme waiting for the "star" to appear will probably have the opinion that he is worth all he can get. Frequently his is the only laugh that makes it worth while to visit a music hall. As for scrapping the old jokes, also the old songs, as is proposed it is doubtful if this could be carried out, especially with regard to the old songs. There is always a call for some favorite song when a well-known singing comedian is holding the boards and it is not likely such could be relinquished to the scrap heap with any prospect of it staying there.

PERSONALS

Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., M. P.; Dr. Murray MacLaren, M. P., and Mrs. MacLaren, of this city, and George B. Jones, M. P., and Mrs. Jones, of Apohaqui, left on Saturday evening for Ottawa to be present at the opening of Parliament. Thomas Nagle returned Saturday afternoon from a business trip to Boston.

Mrs. J. J. Doherty and Mrs. W. H. Doherty returned from Montreal on Friday. A German chemist claims to have produced an imitation coal as good as the genuine at half cost. The world's richest ruler had on German "clams."

A large family, and that there might be many relatives that he had never heard of.

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

St. John Y.M.C.A. Senior Hexathlon

Contest Completed and Final Showing of Points Much Larger Than Last Year.

The St. John Y. M. C. A. Senior Hexathlon contest has been completed and the final showing is one that the local Association ought to be proud of. Approximately sixty senior athletes competed, and the performances in each event were of an exceptionally high order.

In the 160 yard potato race, all of the six high point winners piled up over 30 points each. Many of those who go to music halls and sit through a dreary programme waiting for the "star" to appear will probably have the opinion that he is worth all he can get. Frequently his is the only laugh that makes it worth while to visit a music hall. As for scrapping the old jokes, also the old songs, as is proposed it is doubtful if this could be carried out, especially with regard to the old songs. There is always a call for some favorite song when a well-known singing comedian is holding the boards and it is not likely such could be relinquished to the scrap heap with any prospect of it staying there.

PERSONALS

Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., M. P.; Dr. Murray MacLaren, M. P., and Mrs. MacLaren, of this city, and George B. Jones, M. P., and Mrs. Jones, of Apohaqui, left on Saturday evening for Ottawa to be present at the opening of Parliament. Thomas Nagle returned Saturday afternoon from a business trip to Boston.

Mrs. J. J. Doherty and Mrs. W. H. Doherty returned from Montreal on Friday. A German chemist claims to have produced an imitation coal as good as the genuine at half cost. The world's richest ruler had on German "clams."

A large family, and that there might be many relatives that he had never heard of.

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

HEADS THAT ACHE AND PAIN

It is hard to drag along with a head that aches and pains all the time. In nine cases out of ten, persistent headaches are due to poisoned blood, the blood being rendered impure through some derangement of the stomach, liver or bowels, but no matter which organ is to blame the cause must be removed before permanent relief can be obtained.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

which has been on the market for the past forty-five years, removes the cause of the headache by starting the organs of elimination acting freely, and when the impurities are carried off from the system, purified blood circulates in the brain cells, and the aches and pains vanish.

Miss Clara Murphy, Centre Dumfries, Ont., writes:—"My system was greatly run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice a decided improvement in my health. I took another bottle and it has done me an enormous amount of good. I have recommended it to some of my friends who were in a similar condition and they all say it is a wonderful remedy."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HEAVY BOMB EXPLODED IN MONTREAL CHURCH

Thrown in Stairway Leading to West End Methodist Church.

Montreal, March 5.—An explosion occurred here tonight in a stairway leading to the Montreal West End Methodist church, at the corner of Canning and Cornwell streets, when a bomb scattered its contents around the vestibule. The bomb was small and no damage resulted. The noise of the explosion, however, created a sensation in the church, which was filled with worshippers at the time, but the pastor, Rev. F. B. Alint, succeeded in allaying any tendency to panic. Among the debris of the bomb a piece of paper was picked up, on which was written, "The Fulford Street Gang." Rev. F. B. Alint expressed the hope that the outrage was the work of some of those opposed to his faith, and who possibly resented the success of the church in the neighborhood. The police were called but no arrests have so far been made.

The formal opening of Parliament does not come till the day following. Then, at three o'clock in the afternoon, the newly elected Speaker, J. G. Macdonald, will preside over the opening of the House. The House will adjourn till Monday for the opening of debate on the address an dthe session will begin in earnest.

Mr. Gounaris Disappointed. Interviewed by a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, on the eve of his departure, Mr. Gounaris did not conceal a disappointment at the failure to reach a settlement. He never attached any importance to the platitudes uttered by the Allies during the war and was also prepared to leave aside the fact that Greece was not a united country...

IRISH REPUBLICAN ARMY AT LIMERICK

Dublin, March 5.—Units of Irish Republican Army from Cork, Tipperary and Clare, arrived in Limerick early Sunday and commandeered the principal hotels. The men said the incursion was made with the purpose of upholding the recent proclamation of the Brigadier of the Mid-Limerick Irish Republican Army, declaring for a Republic, in connection with which general headquarters took disciplinary measures.

The coming season will be responsible for many "headache" speeches in the House this will be a strenuous season for the Government