The Month of Marriages Begun With a Large Number in City and Province—Fashionable Event at Halifax.

Wilson-Olive. Wednesday was a day of weddings in St. John and a number of happy couples were united in the bonds of matrimony. An early ceremony was performed at St. John's (Episcopal) church when Miss Elsie St. George Olive and William H. Wilson, chief accountant of the Lovell mechanical works, Halifax, were united in marriage by Rev. John de Soyres. The bride was gowned in a green traveling dress with silk trimmings. Her hair was made up of lace, grey silk and flowers. She carried a bouquet of cream roses, while that of her bridesmaid, Miss Louise Olive, her sister, was pink roses. Her head felt hot and feverish; her tongue was coated; her bowels were dry, and her eyes dull and heavy. She would cry at times and appear unnaturally drowsy. I saw Baby's Own Tablets advertised, and after getting a box began to give them to her. Inside of twenty-four hours she began to get better, and in a few days she was bright and she is now quite healthy and rosy looking. I have also given the Tablets to my other children for colds and indigestion, and the result has always been good. I can recommend them very highly to all mothers for their children."

OBITUARY.

Patrick Gleeson. Though not unexpected, the news of the death of Patrick Gleeson Tuesday morning, after quite a long illness, was heard with genuine regret. His demise removes an old and highly respected citizen and one who was held in high esteem by all classes of citizens and varying degrees of acquaintance. Mr. Gleeson, who had attained his 70th year, came to this city from the county Kerry (Ireland) with his parents in 1846. At an early age he became a clerk for Edward Kitcham, North street, and later entered into partnership with Mr. Estabrooks, under the name of Estabrooks & Gleeson, on the South wharf. This firm was dissolved in 1871. In 1880 Mr. Gleeson became collector of city rentals, which position he held at the time of his death. He also, until recently, attended to the various duties of the cathedral, such as the renting and collection of pew rents and general collections, and it is needless to say his duties were performed with utmost satisfaction. Mr. Gleeson was an active member of Emerald No. 4 Engine Company in the old volunteer fire department, holding membership from 1854 to 1888, and was in the third year as president for the second time, when taken ill. Mr. Gleeson was appointed a member of the peace for the city and justice of the peace for the city and was appointed a member of the slaughter house commission. Mr. Gleeson was always a welcome guest at the St. Andrew's Society, and last year's celebration of the president of that society, in his address, called attention to the fact that for the first time in many years Mr. Gleeson's name was vacant and that his genial personality was much missed in the happy gathering.
