POOR DOCUMENT

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1903.

WANTED.

ED-A girl for general house wor small family. Good wages. App H. C. Page, 155 Wright street, S B. 9-2-tf-wkly.

y to Mrs. Brock, Rothesay, N. B.

ED—Second-class Female Teacher to ge for one year in District No. S.
1 Drummond, Victoria county. Will the rate of $140.00 for the school ird, $1.25 per week. Send contract ics) with application and one will by trustees and returned to the Teacher lately from Normal referred. Apply to John Walker, iley, Victoria county, N. B.
8-22-31-w

ED—A capable woman to do housec; small family; good wages; referquired. Apply to Mrs. F. M. Humiampton.

ED—Help for Laundry at Provincial atic Asylum. Apply to Matron.
7-8-tf-sw. VAY LABORERS WANTED—15 men ted at once for ballasting and gradges $1.50 per day. Board, $2.00 per as. Barnes Construction Co., Chipeens Co., N. B.

WANTED—Girl for general house or nurse girl. Apply mornings, 166 reet, east.

CUTTERS WANTED—Eight good to Cutters wanted at once Wages $3 Apply to The Jas. Barnes Constructhipman. Queens Co., N. B. 7-23-tf-d&w.

ONEY TO LOAN.

Y TO LOAN on city, tawn, village country property, in amounts to suit rates of interest. H. H. Pickett, 80-50 Princess street, St. John. 2-12-dw

MELVILLE N. COCKBURN. dge of Probate for Charlotte County. G. STEVENS, JR., istrar of Probate for Charlotte County 7-8 3m n wkly

SEEDS

Sensation and New Markets American Clover Seeds-Alsake Red

ther seeds of every description. JAMES COLLINS. Sand 210 Union Street, St. John, N. E

TTERS ARE

MIRING IN From al' quarters, asking for Catalogue and information relative to Fredericton Business College. W. J. OSBORNE.

FREDERICTON, N. B.

SALE—Three heavy draft horses od workers. Inquire of or write to Johnstone, Upper Loch Lomond, S County. 8-30-3id—2i-w

BIRTHS

WLTON-On Aug. 30, to the wife i. Knowlton, a son.

MARRIAGES

SSIE - WHELPLEY — At · Carter's (sings county, on August 31, Wm. B e, of Westfield, to Florence H. of Councillor and Mrs. Alfred y, of Carter's Point.

DEATHS.

N-At Point du Chene on August 27, Logan in the 69th year of his age, one son and three daughters to their sad loss. (New York papers

SHIP NEWS.

PORT OF ST. JOHN.

r Albuera, 2268, Grady, from Manchesvm Tmomson & Co, general.
Calvin Austin, 2853, Pike, from BosWG Lee, mdse and passengers.
Sea Bird, 80, Andrews, from Eastatwise-Schrs Dora, 63, Canning, from boro; Glide, 16, Boyne, from Lepreaux;
and, 44, Canning, from Port Greville;
ie, 47, Morris, from Windsor; Electric 34, Bain, from Digby; Economist, 13, r, from Hall's Harbor; Linnet, 14, Gibfrom Margaretville; Packet, 49, Bishop, Bridgetown; Joliette, 65, Gordon, from
; stmr Westport, 48, Lewis ,from Free-

Sunday, Aug. 30.
Stmr Almora, 2,835, Abernethie, from Glasgow via Ardrossan, Schofield & Co.
Monday, Aug 31.
Stmr Westport III, Powell, from Yarmouth, James Knox.
Stmr Aurora, Ingersoll, from Grand Manua.

Simr Coringo, Bie, for Glasgow, Wm Phomson & Co. Coastwise—Schrs Wood Bros, Golding, for Quaco; Haines, Hains, for Freeport; Glide, Soyne, for Campobello; Effort, Milner, for nnapolis; Joliette, Gordon, for Quaco; Linet, Gibson, for Margaretville; Electric Light, Bain, for Digby; Yarmouth Packet, haw, for Yarmouth; Maitland, Canning, for Parrsboro; Nina Blanche, Crocker, for Freeport.

Stmr Niceto, Bislegin, Brow Head f o, Schr Agnes May, Kerrigan, Eastport, A Malcolm.
Schr Lotus, Ganville, Bridgetown, A Cushug & Co.
Coastwise Schre

Stmr Calvin Austin, Pike, for Boston, W G Lee.

CANADIAN PORTS. eys, for Halifax. illsboro, Aug 27—Ard, schr v, from Hopewell Cape. ld, 27—Schr Strathcona, Go (Miq).

Chatham, Aug 31—Ard, Barquentine Edith
Sheraton, from Summerside (P E I); schr
Abble C Stubbs, from Halifax; barque Darby, from Belfast; stmr Normania, from Cardiff.

Queenstown, Aug. 28—Ard, stmr Ultonia, from Boston for Liverpool; Campanla, from New York for Liverpool and both proceeded. Southampton, Aug 28—Sailed, stmr Furst Bismarck, from Hamburg for New York da Cherbourg.

Brow Head, Aug. 28—Passed, stmr Huntliffe, from Halifax for — Dover, Aug 28—Passed, stmr Alf, from Yabana for — Queenstown, Aug. 28—Ard, stmr Nancy ee, from Chicoutimi.
Cardiff, Aug. 28—Ard, stmr Nancy ee, from Chicoutimi. BRITISH PORTS. Prawle Point, Aug 27—Passed, schr Proven, m Altona for Dalhousie.

Iamburg, Aug. 26—Ard, bark Helen Isa, from Harbor Grace.
, ondon, Aug. 28—Ard, bark Sir John Launee, from Northport (N S).

Ardrossan, Aug. 27—Sid, bark Kilkeel, for rrsboro. Maryport, Aug 30—Sld, stmr 1

FOREIGN PORTS.

Boothbay Harbor, Me, Aug 28—Ard, schrs Reorgie D Löud, from Portsmouth (N H): schr yacht Annie, from do; schr Rowena, from St John; Pansy, from do; Carrie C Milles, from Coastwise.

Sld—Schrs C W Dexter, for Wellfleet; Thomas Hix, for Gloucester.
Boston, Aug. 28—Ard, stmrs Prince Arthur, from Yarmouth; Louisbourg, from Sydney: C B); bark Willard Mudgett, from Morfolk; schrs Harry Morris, from Quace; Olivia, from Stonington (Me); Annie & Reuben, from lo; Sarah A Blaisdell, from Bangor; Catalna, from Rockport (Me); Onward, from Rockland; J H Perkins, from Portland; Wilson and Willard, from Bath. Sld—Stmrs St Croix, for St John via East-ort and Portland; Bergensen (Nor), for Sydney (C B); Prince Arthur, for Yarmouth N S); schrs George W Wells, for Norfolk (Va); Wm C Carnegie, for Philadelphia; Van Allans Boughton, for Baltimore, Aug. 28—Ard, stmrs Dorchester, rom Providence; Kershaw, from Boston; Maitimore, Aug. 28—Ard, stmrs Dorchester, om Providence; Kershaw, from Boston; hrs Helen Martin, irom Portland; Baker almer, from Boston. Cove Point, Md, Aug 28—Passed up, schr seph G Ray, from Sargentville for Balti-Joseph G Ray, from Sargentville for Baltimore.

Passed south—Schr Robert Ewing, Sallyi Calais, Me, Aug 28—Sild, Fortuna, 1or Hillsboro (N B).

City Island, Aug 28—Bound south, schrs Clayola, from Rockport; Zeta, from Sherbrooke (N S); Lavonia, from Port Greville (N S); Wm L Elkins,, from St John (reports Aug 25, 6.30 p m off Faulkners Island, Long Island Sound, during heavy northwest squall lost mainsail and spanker).

Fall River, Mass, Aug 23—Sild, schr Rowena, for New York to load for St John.

Hyannis, Mass, Aug 28—Sid, Quetay, from Port Johnson, for St John and sailed.

New London, Conn, Aug 28—Ard, schr Domain, from Bridgeport for St John.

Fortland, Me, Aug 28—Cld, schrs Rober Drury, for Hillsboro (N B).

Savannah, Aug 28—Sid, schr Jessie Lene, for Bridgewater (N S).

Gloucester, Mass, Aug 31—Ard, schrs Levose, Church Point.
Larne, Aug 29—Ard, barque Normanvik, Chatham. Shelburne.

New York, Aug 31—Sld, stmr Dominion, Sydney (C B).

Portland, Aug. 31.—Ard, schrs Laura C Hall, Lower Cove (N S); H A Holder, St John for Boston; Elwood Burton, Boston for Hillscheep.

John for Boston; Elwood Burton, Postal Hillsboro.
Salem, Mass, Aug 31—Ard, schr W E Waters, St John for New York.
Vineyard Haven, Aug 31—Ard and Sld, sch Norman, St John for City Island.
Sld—Schrs J L Colwell, from St John for New York; Ida M Barton; from do for do Amdrew A, from do for do; Ayr, from do for do; Pandora, from Halifax dor Ney York; Rosa Muller, from St John.

Passed—Schrs Priscilla, St John.

VESSELS BOUND FOR ST. JOHN. Steamers.

Hermann, 1,290, Cardiff, Aug 15.
Loyalist, 1,419, at Glasgow, Aug. 27.
St. John City, 1,412, London via Halifax, Aug 24.

Cyprian, 847, Liverpool, Aug 1. Dana, from London, Aug 27. Maria Laura, 641, at Portland, Aug 10. Primo, 1,158, at Gloucester, Mass, Aug 15.

OBITUARY.

John Carmichael.

John Carmichael, of Toronto, died of

J. J. McCaffrey, Formerly of New Brunswick The death took place last night in the st. Vincent de Paul Hospital of J. J. Mo Caffrey, of Iroquois, a former resident of Brookville, who had many warm friend here. For the past two years Mr. McCaf frey had been a sufferer from Bright's dis ease and at intervals during this period was a patient at the St. Vincent de Pau indurance he fought bravely against the nevitable but finally succumbed

ed it and pushed the railway through with splendid results. Mr. McCaffrey re what spiendid results. Mr. Magarrey re-turning to Ontario accepted the position of chief accountant for Larkin & Con-nolly, contractors of the Iroquois canal. The deceased married Mits Mason, of ren survive. He was a member of Brock-rille Branch, No. 43, C. M. B. A. Mr. McCaffrey was a keen business man of had the pleasure of his acquaintance

William Harris, a cooper by trade, died Sunday at his home, 299 Columbia street, Cambridge (Mass.). He was a native of St. John (N.B.), and was 47 years old. Death was caused by heart disease. Burial was in Cambridge cemetery.—Cambridge

William McCutcheon.

Wm. McCutcheon, a life-long resident of Milkish and vicinity, died Sunday morning after a lingering illness though only since Thursday of last week was the end seen to be near. Mr. McCutcheon was seventy-six years old and is survived by 900 DROPS For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Avegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regula-ting the Stomachs and Bowels of Bears the INFANTS CHILDREN Signature Crue, from Port Silva for St John.

New Haven, Aug 29—Ard, schr Victor, from St John.

Provincetown, Aug 29—Ard, schrs Effie May, from St John for Boston; John Brace-well, M. V. B. Chase, Clara E Rogers, destination unknown; Annie Mitchell, from Hurricane Island for New York; E Waterman, from Calais for Plymouth, and sid.

Portland, Me, Aug 30—Ard Saturday, schrs Luta Price, Cora B, Rowena, Pansy, Brenton, and Eric, from Now Scotla ports for New York; Nena Maud, from Production of the Wyork; Nena Maud, from Wiscasset to finish loading for Demerara; Zampa, from Machias for Mills, from Machias for New York; Fanny F Hall and Mary Willey, from Bangor for Vineyard Haven; N P Walker, from Bengor for Boston; J M Morales, from Bangor for Vineyard Haven; N P Walker, from Jonesport for New York; M A Pope, from Addison for do; Lone Star, from Machias for Boston; C E Sears, from Calais for New York.

Cld—Stur Englishman, for Liverpool.

Ard Sunday—Stmrs Nomadic, from Liverpool; North Star, from New York.

Salem, Aug 30—Ard, schr H A Stanley, Weymouth; T B Hardwick, from Annapolis; Georgia E, from St John; Abole Keast, from New York for Digby; Saral C Smith, from St John for New York; Adde M Barker, from St John for New York; Adde M Barker, from St John for New York; Addie M Barker, from St John for New York; Addie M Barker, from St John for New York; Addie M Barker, from St John for New York; Addie M Barker, from St John for New York; Addie M Barker, from St John for New York; Addie M Barker, from St John for New York; Addie M Barker, from St John for New York; Addie M Barker, from St John for New York; Addie M Barker, from St John; E Merriam, Vindsor, Orthand Starker, Mass, Surgan Starker, Schra Levender, Schra Starker, Schra Levender, Schra Starker, Schra S For Over Thirty Years

Ada, are resident in Boston and another

Walter McGuiggan.

The death of Walter McGuiggan, son the late Thomas McGuiggan, occurred at his home, Carmarthen street, on Saturday meral will take place on Tuesday.

Mrs. William Allwood.

The death of Mrs. Sarah Louise Allleaves two sons, Frank S. and Zebedee G., and an adopted daughter, Fannie. The deceased was a daughter of L. G. Gabel, deceased was a daugner at J. G. Ganel, and her only sister is Mrs. J. A. Estey. She was president of the W. F. M. Society of Brussels street Baptist church, and was very active in church work.

George Campbell, of the I C. R.

George Campbell, watchman at the I. C. R. terminus, died Monday morning at his home in Lombard street. Deceased, while gent employe, and for the past ten years faithfully discharged his duties. He was fifty-five years of age and is survived by a

Thomas W. London died very suddenly Thomas W. London died very studenty at his home, Chesley street, about 10 o'clock Monday morning. A half hour earlier he was walking the streets, apparently in good health, but shortly after entering his home he was stricken with heart failure. Decased had been engaged for a chiral deriving a 'lous between the city age and leaves a wife, but no family. The body will be taken by boat today to Wicknam, where interment will be made.

Death of Schuyler Nesbitt. St. Stephen, Aug. 31—(Special)—An old and respected citizen, Schuyler Nesbitt, was buried this afternoon from his house eighty-three years ago, and for years was deputy sheriff of Charlotte county. He was a prominent member of the Orange order. He leaves several children to mourn the loss of a kind father.

Sudden Death of a Northumberland County

Woman
Chatham, N. B., Aug. 31—(Special) Lizzie, daughter of the late Thomas Havi-land and wife of William Sothart, of six, who have the sympathy of the community in their sad and sudden bereavement.

Dominion of Canada, Province of New Brunswick. In the Supreme Court in Equity:

Between Annie Ellis, plaintiff, and John Bain, Mary Olivia Bain, Mary Barton, Thomas Barton, Janet Reid, Thomas Reid, William George Verner, Isabella Verner, William George Verner, Isabella Verner, William Ganete, Alfred E. Lair, Bertie A. Lair, the trustees of school district No. 1, in the parish of Saint Martins, in the County of the City and County of St. John, The Canada Permanent and Western Canada Mortgage Corporation, Elizabeth Bain and William Ellis, defendants.

Whereas it has been made to appear to me the undersigned one of the judges of the Supreme Court, by affidavit that John Bain, farmer, departed this life on or about the fourteenth day of February, A. D. 1858, at the parish of Saint Martins, intestate, and that at the time of his death he was seized or possessed in fee simple of all that tract of land granted by the Crown to him, the said John Bain, under and by grant numbered 1927, on the twenty-seventh day of December, 1825, and described therein as:

"A tract of land in the Parish of Saint Martins and County of Saint John, bounded as follows, to wit:

Beginning at the north east angle of land granted to Stephen Howard in the second tier south of the road leading from Loch Lomond to Quaco, thence by magnet south one degree west sixty chains, of four poles on the court of the court of sour poles on the second tier of the court of sour poles on the court of sour poles of the court of sour poles on the court of sour poles of the court of sou

E. McLEOD, J. S. C

British Parliamentary Party at Montreal Montreal, Aug. 31-(Special)-The Brit General of England; C. MacDone, Colonel Sadler, M. P.; George Don P., and others. After remaining

Wood's Phosp dine. Before and After.

I Will Be True.

years she had steeled her heart against all pertaining to this girl, and yet now she later, she found the captain bending over found it hard to withstand those lovely Jeanie, who had risen, both of her hands 'It you take me, Miss Burton,' continued the sad young voice, 'I will serve you so gladly. I have battled for myself two No, I will be true to you,' wa years, ever since poor papa died, and now swer bravely given. 'And she, d ar good. I could wish to die myself.'

'Hush, girl! No one dares to wish that.

You know my story, Jeannette Moore; entering with a square piece of canvas in mine, your father's, and your mother's; and you cannot wonder that, although I will Moore! False as Florence herself. And keep you, I expect only ingratitude.'

Miss Burton wave ' her white hand, commanding silence; then she rang a bell, and said to the maid who answered it:

'Open Miss Florence's room and have it face lifted to the sky, while Roy stood at a arranged, for Miss Moore will occupy it distance, oalm and white, with a terrible vision of beauty seldom seen; those calm years before, and she had written, in tender powerful brown eyes and classical features made her pre-eminently glorious. They in one corner. had called her 'Gloria' in those days, but 'You painted now it was only Miss Jeannette, or Miss

The family had then consisted of Mr Burton, his son Roy, and Gloria, beside are to wait for nothing; go immediately. Florence, the child of his only brother.

Florence Burton was not beautiful, but She seized the shivering form, led her to the was a thousand times more attractive the door, and put her outside. Captain than stately Gloria, and Roy was madiy in Wittmore followed her. ove with her, so much so that Mr. Burton aluctantly consented to their engagement as the door closed on poor Jeanis. 'Let me when Roy was eighteen and his consin two explain. I-

Moore, a handsome young artist, as aristo you ad her until merning. I command cratic as he was poor, ever since her c'ildit, an . will see that my commands are hood. On her seventeenth birthday she was enforced.

made for the wedding. One week before the time Florence started Burton stood at the low window in the for the village with Harry Moore to make library, her sunken eyes turned without, some trifling purchase for the bride, and while a figure toiled its way to the gate of never returned. The shock killed Mr. Burton and sent Roy, the gay care-free Roy of old, away from the loved home of his childhood, where he might forget Florence's perfidy. But Jeannette Burton reigned calmly on leaving a tender baby-girl, whose name she asked might be Jeannette, for the girl they hal wronged. Jennie Moore was happy indeed until her ather died and left her penniless; but sha took up the burden bravely, and worked for her bread with all her might. She struggled for two years, and then, worn out and disheartened, applied to Miss Burton for aid I think even then the lady would have refused her request but for the girl's elo quent violet eyes, so like Florence Burton's; those she could not resist. False!' Miss Jeannette whispered bitter ly, half angry with herself. 'Like mother, ng with diamond-like eyes, lite the Floronce of long ago; but whether she, too were false, only time would tell. She was at l ast true to her word; she asked only a nome, and she had gotten it. She secured oupi's, and gave lessons in drawing and painting, and soon won her tiny share of for she had a pleasant word or a smiling glance for those wonderful violet eyes for

She took a deep interest in Burton Hill, where she found so many mementoes of her dead reverenced mother. In the art gal- frightened eyes at Jeanie. lery, seldom entered row, hung that mother's picture, away from the rest of the Burtons, of whose faces Roy's pleased Jeanie best. There was something in the brilliant, proud, keep my secret Five years ago I was a and yet kindly brown eyes that made her gambler—no inoffensive player, but a desand yet kindly brown eyes that made her pity him. He had loved her mother, and she (Jeanie always sighed here) had betrayed his love.

heart had healed, and Harry was utterly the Jesnie, she kept my secres well ia her maturer years, she gave to Captain Wittmors. He, a grave man of forty, loved warmed as he read her letter, asking him t) come to Burton Hill, and telling him of its new inmate, Jeanie Moore, and yet he

When he met the girl he seemed nervous, and his face paled as he looked into the bright eyes and took one little hand.

'So you are Jear ie Moore?' he said 'Yes,' Jeanie faltered, with flushed cheeks and downcast eyes; which did not escape Miss Rurton's notice.

terday from Scotland, Laurence,' she renarked. 'If you will only come into the west parlor you can see them in a good 'I mean to try the picture,' the girl whispered when they left her alone Roy Burton's eyes would look lovely sad, and I the fol nust try it. But why did he come here? I thought he meant to stay in France where he was when we knew him. Well, it can-

But she found it did matter, when it was too late. Captain Wittmore watched Jeanie nore than half the time, and talked to her, it seemed, the other half. Miss Burton grew anxious. Hed not Florence taken Harry from her? Was it just for her child to win Laurence Wittmore? No, no!

It was a dark, stormy night in Novem-

Only a home, I ask nothing more. Miss | Burton Hill. They had be n sibing in the Burton; but I must have a home, or die. I library, Jeanie apart from the others, paintwill be maid, seamstress, anything you wish, ing a head of the watch dog, Hero, and Captain Wittmore and Miss Burton talking Miss Burton's beautiful brown eyes had easily, and a little confid ntially, until the never left the spraker's face; for twenty latter was called away. When she returned, some fifteen minutes clasped in his.

'Jeanie, you will never tell her,' he was 'No, I will be true to you,' was the an-

Miss Burton, will never, never know.' 'She does know!' exclaimed the listener, now I ask you to explain this.' 'I thank you' said Jeannette Moore slowly. 'Perhaps sometime I can prove that I disclosed a picture, a scene familiar to them all—the lawn at Burton Hill, and three figures there-Miss Jeannette's father, with a agony in his brown eyes. This was Jeanie's idea of how they had was almost thirty-seven now), she was a looked on that dreadful morning, twenty girlish pity, the name, 'Gloria's Desertion,'

'You painted iti'
'Yes,' Jeanie fo nd voice to reply. 'You are false to me-to all! Now take this vile thing and leave my house. You Will you stand aside, Laurence?'

'You are mad, Jeannette,' he exclaimed,

'You will not say a word!' The brown Gloria had been promised to Harry eyes 'ted their defiance, 'Neither will

> Burton Hill. It was a man, tall and majesthat they tic, whose eyes never left the limp helpless

> > Miss Barton threw open the window as he approached.

He lifted a pair of dark stern eyes to her face, and stepped over the casement with his burden, which he placed upon the lounge by the grate. Poor Jeanie was wet through, and u terly unconscious. Her lashes rested upon her white cheeks and her long soft hair fell like a veil half over

'You are Jennette Burton?' the stranger

'Jeannette Moore

'Florence Burton's daughter?' I thought so: I recognized the picture. It is sadly defaced. Do you know what it

He held up Jeanie's picture, all wet and 'I do. But who are you?' 'I am Robert Burton, the Roy of this.' He pointed to the canvas.

'My brother!' Miss Jeannette cried. Jeanie stirred and lifted her violet eyes. T' meant no harm, Miss Burton,' she fame. She became a general favorite, too. and I wanted to see how they would look sorrowful. So I painted it, and then I put in the others, you and Mr. Barton. Please

> Miss Burton left the room and returned with Captain Wittmore, who looked with

'Jeanette,' he said huskily, turning to her, 'you must hear me now, for her sake, perate gambler, with no higher employment.

They saved me, Harry Moone and his gentle violet-eyed child. I loved you, Jeannette, and I did not want you to know. Pour lit-'Thanks,' whispered the girl feebly, and

"Thanks," whispered the girl feebly, and fainted dead away.

When at last she recovered, there was a quiet wedding at the Hill, and 'Goria' (avery boty called her that now) took her away with the captain and herself to their own home. After a little while Jesnie went back to Burton Hill with Roy, as his wife.

"Tanie, the true," Roy calls her laugh-class of the sender form, with a tender class of the slender form, he assues her that the child has atoned a the user dimes for all the pain the mother caus d him.

nsures Love and a Happy Home