FARM HORSES WIN THE THREE

St. Stephen, July: 27—(Special)—The second day's racing on Calais track was witnessed by another large crowd. The track was good but a heavy wind prevented faster time. Good racing was, however, the order of the day. The judges were as on Tuesday with C. S. Dorrity again the starter. The City Cornet Band played an excellent programme. Much disappointment was manifested on the withdrawal of Beatrice Greeley, which horse thad strained a leg during the race at St. Stephen and by advice of Dr. Potter, veterinary, the judges allowed her to withdraw from the race.

The great old mare Effie Powers was the original favorite. The judges, however, did not like the driving and after the second heat warned the driver of Phoebon W., which horse then took the next two heats. After this performance the bay gelding tired and Terrill S. captured another heat, and Effie Powers surprised all by coming to life and taking the sixth heat by a nose in a thrilling finish.
