Stove Pipe THE ALDINE is an elegant miscellany of ollection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot daplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten since its cost; and then, there are the chromos besides the ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last Fall, the edition was more than doubled during the past year.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.

In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce occurred the best foreign masters.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, appropriate to the four seasons.

The popular feature of a copiously illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.
