I, the undersigned, Secretary of Hibernia Lodge, No. 3, F. and A. M. of N. an account of which appeared in the Telegraph of this morning. The Lodge dealt with that matter months ago, and decided to have nothing to do with it.

The EVENING SESSION is now in full opertion, which will enable young men to take advantage of the College Course without interfering with thoir business.

The same studies pursued as during the day:
All of the subjects recessary for a thorough Commercial education, are taught in a practical "one of the most pleasant of the kind that has taken place for a long time," will not, therefore, "form a very interest ing record for the archives of Hibernia." A. J. ARMSTRONG.

Presentation. [From the Amherst Gazette.] On Christmas Eve an elegant silver plated tea service was sent to the editor | S of this paper, accompanied by the fol-

Dear Sir: Members of the Baptist Church and Congregation of this place recognizing your gratuitous services as organist and leader of the choir wish to manifest their appreciation of your aid thus given to church worship, and at this season of the year, when tokens of manifest interest and good will are presented, take much pleasure in presenting to you the accompanying tea service, with the best wishes of the donors for your future happiness and prosperity."

Mr. Black takes this means of expressing his thanks to the friends who took part in procuring so handsome and valuable a Christmas present. He values it, not only as expressing appreriation of personal services, but as eyincing the special interest taken by a considerable number in the important part of divine worship which he has the honor to conduct.

A gentleman was walking down Virginia Canon the other day. There was no perceptible breeze at the time. Suddenly he was surprised by a roaring noise belied him, a poise like that of an express hind him-a noise like that of an express hind him—a noise like that of an express train when crossing a bridge, or passing a rocky wall. Stopping a moment to listen, a whirlwind, apparently not more than a yard in diameter, and travelling no faster than a spirited walk, picked him up, as it were, and waltzed off down the road with him. Its vertical force was sufficient to invert the tails of his coat above his head, notwitstanding the pockets were loaded with specimens of silver ore, and at the same time he was carried along for a hundred feet or more like a feather, with both feet occasionally off the ground, while under him was a noise like that of an empty cart bouncing over a stony street.

Canada has another scandal, in which Conking, Hall and Parlor Stoves peared to be that the Hon. Aley, Mackenzie, the Dominion Premier, the Hon.
George Brown and Gordon Brown, members of the Cabinet, Col. Shaw, and two or three others have formed themselves into a company to work silver mines on Lake Superior. The mines are controlled by the Ontario Government, which is controlled by Mr. Mackenzie. Canadians think that the Premier should live on his salary, and not go into mining speculations. But then Mr. Mackenzie has a
